

THE RAIDER

WAGNER, SOUTH DAKOTA

DEDICATION

We the Raider Staff and students of Wagner High take great pleasure in dedicating our 1952 annual to Mr. Moriarty.

During the past four years he has been with us, he has been our principal for three years and he is now our superintendent. Mr. Moriarty is an advisor who is always ready and willing to lend a helping hand in any situation.

So congratulations to Mr. Moriarty and we hope he has the best of luck in any of his undertakings in the future.

HOMECOMING

In a colorful ceremony spotlighted on the stage of the Auditorium Thursday, November 18, 1951, Elaine Weber and Ed Novak were crowned Queen and King to reign over the festivities of Homecoming.

A fanfare gave warning that the royal pair for 1951 were about to approach with attendants in the Processional. Attired in attractive wine velvet robes, trimmed in white fur, the Homecoming King and Queen moved down the aisle to the stage through a passageway made by the girls glee club holding white candles.

Carrying the wine velvet train were William and Robert Kayser, Tommy Von Eschen and Jay Sadler. Crown bearers were Linda Hron and Jackie Smith. Those acting as flower girls were Judy Bren, Kay Evers, Carol Pol, Marianne Ellwein, Ellen Buus and Linda DeWald.

Personal attendants to the Queen included Myrna Connelly and Connie Kostel, while Charles Broz and Douglas Chapman acted as attendants to the King.

Attendants from the respective classes were Jerry Broz, Irene Gale, Tommy Skog, Elaine Thaler, Francis Menor, and Lois Gale.

Following the processional, the program continued with a number by the girls glee club: then the introduction of the '50 Queen, Carol Sykora, by Charles Broz; the crowning of the royal pair by the '50 Queen; history of the Queen by Douglas Chapman; Two numbers by the girls octette, which included Marlene Jespersion, Janis Trantina, June O'Connell, Connie Kostel, Theresa Melmer, JoAnn Broz, and Clarice Rohla; introduction of attendants by Connie Kostel; presentation of roses to the Queen from the Football team by Myron Engel; presentation of gifts to royalty, Connie Kostel, Myrna Connelly, Douglas Chapman, and Charles Broz; presentation of football to Queen by Larry Gale, and last the Recessional.

Parade, Game Big Success

A typical windy October day, full of sunshine and colored leaves created a suitable atmosphere for the eighteenth Homecoming parade of Wagner High School, Friday, October 19, 1951.

The parade theme this year was Progress. The parade began at 2 p.m. led by the band, followed by the King and Queen and their attendants. The floats came next; High School first and grade school last. The wind blew its hardest but the parade went on and when it was over the Seniors walked off with the first place honors in High School, and the third grade placed first in the grade school.
