WAGNER, S. D.

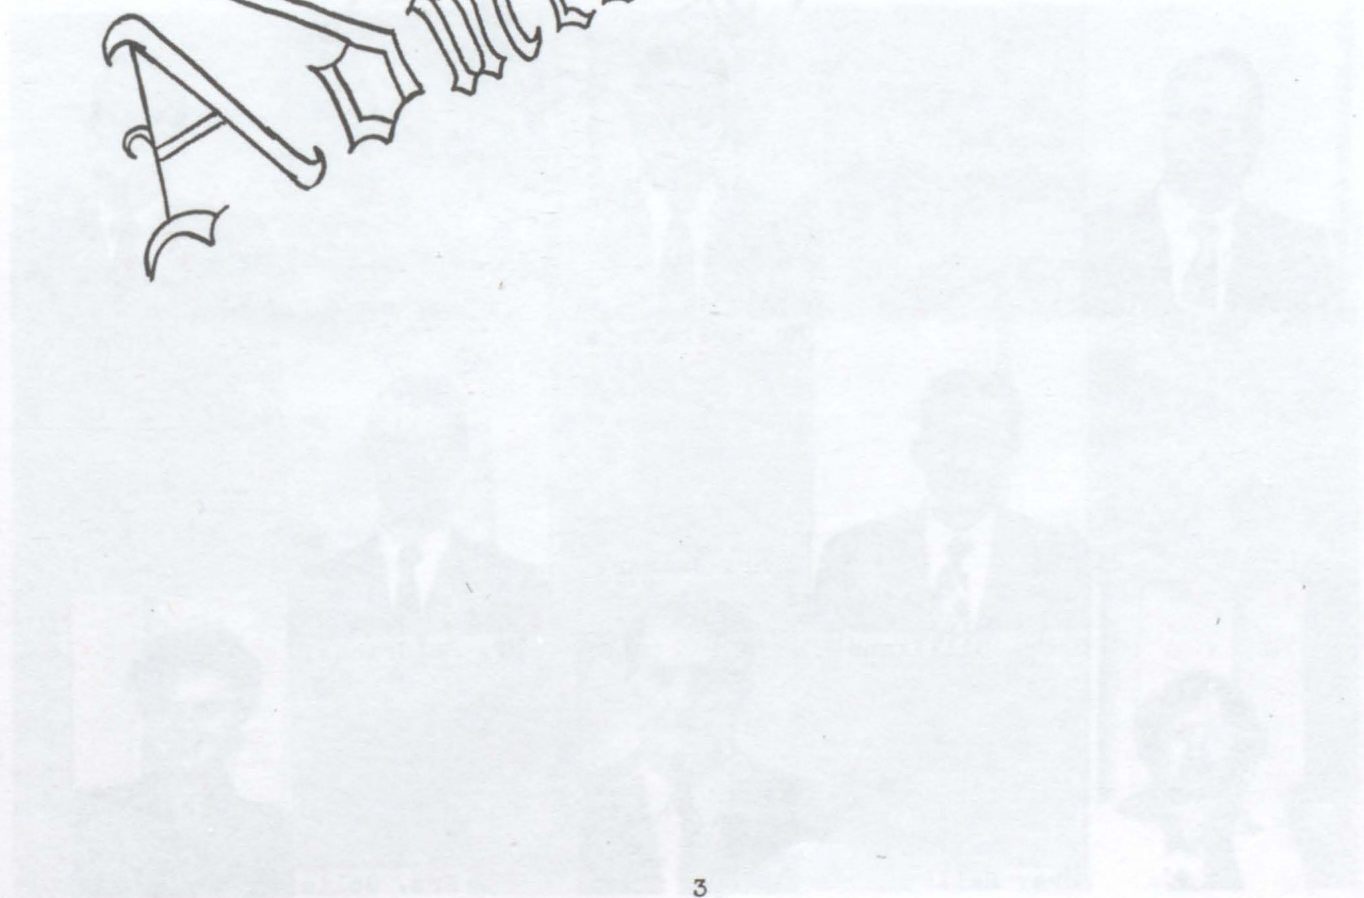

Dedication

We of the Raider Staff take great pride in dedicating this annual to our friend and advisor, Mr. Charles Johnson. Because of his patience and understanding, he will be a pleasant part of his students' memories now and in the years to come.

Mr. Johnson has been teaching in Wagner High School for three years. He teaches English, speech, debate, journalism, and declam. He has also directed the Junior and Senior Plays.

Homecoming

At 7:30 in the evening of Oct. 19, 1954 the annual homecoming parade marched to the McCormick Athletic Field. Included in the parade was a beautifully decorated float bearing the candidates for Homecoming King and Queen.

Coronation took place immediately following the parade at the field. Betty Strayer, last year's queen, gave the crown to Marla Payer, the 1955 Homecoming Queen. Donald Rokusek received the King's crown from the 1954 king, Norman Andersh.

Freshman attendants to the royalty were: Sheila Von Eschen and Raymond Andersh: sophomore attendants, Jo Ann Andersh and Fred Rhoades: and junior attendants, Carol Hawley and Loren Davis. Norma Buus, Ellen Eitemiller, Rose Marie Stedronsky, Jack Knight, Francis Menor, and Robert Smith were the senior attendants.

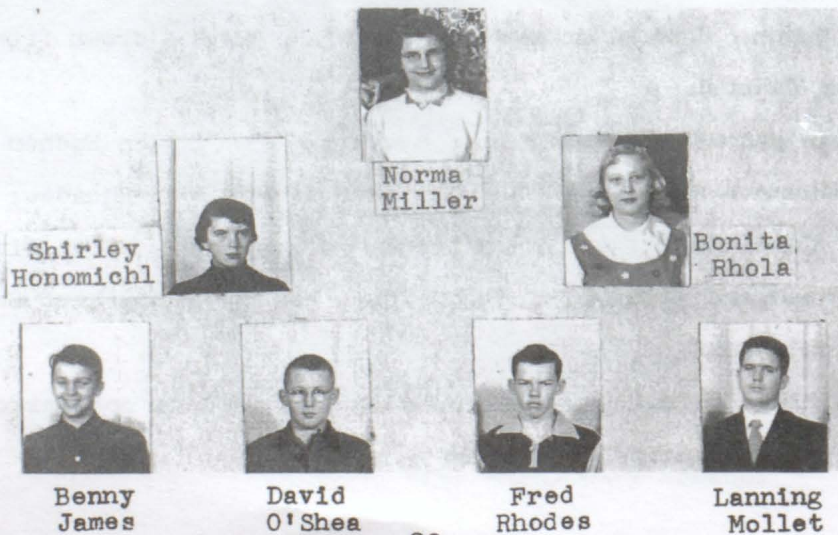

An exciting football game followed the parade and coronation: The final score was Parkston 12 - Wagner 6.
