The Lighter Side

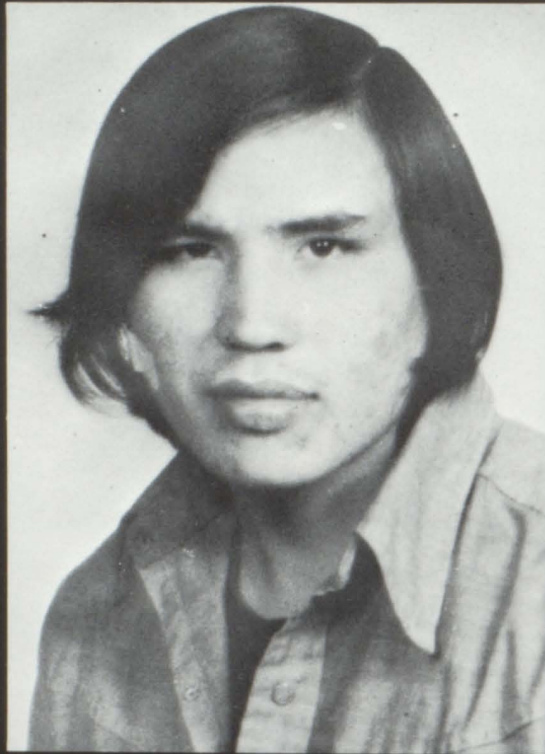

Dedicated to and in Memory of Larry Hoffman

It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness, it was the epoch of belief, it was the season of Light, it was the season of Darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair.

--Tale of Two Cities

We, the Class of 1972, dedicate this annual to our friend and classmate, Larry Hoffman.

In Memory of Doug Sully

This I Know

Grief has its rhythm--first the wild,
Swift tide of dark despair;
The time of bleak aloneness,
When even God's not there.

And then the slow receding
Till quiet calms the sea,
And bare, washed sand
is everywhere
Where castles used to be.

The gentle lapping of the waves
Upon the shore--and then
The pearl-lined shells of memories
To help us smile again.

Seniors Have a Busy Final Year

The big year had finally arrived, and on August 26, fifty-five Seniors began their last year of high school. The year holds many memories, both good and bad, for the Seniors.

For their final year of high school, the class of '72 elected Mike Novak, President, Dave Rezac, Vice-President, and Barb Frager, Secretary-Treasurer. Student council representatives were Carol Hrdlicka and Ken Swatek. Mr. Behrend and Mr. Twitero were the class advisors.

The first big event of the year was Homecoming.

Royalty candidates were Barb Frager, Carol Hrdlicka, Rosie Soukup, Mike Novak, Ken Swatek, and Dale Martin. The week of Homecoming was busy with campaigning, skits, coronation, the game, and the informal welcoming of the "greenies" by the Seniors.

The year was one of hard work and a lot of fun. Many small events added up to a lot of memories. The 6th period government class will remember for a long time the day Rich Nedved spent half the class holding up the bulletin board. Most of the students who went enjoyed the trip to Vermillion to see a Shakespearean play. On Jan. 24, at 5:00 in the morning, the Seniors departed for Pierre. They made it all the way to Chamberlain for breakfast, when the weather forced them to turn back. They finally made the trip on Feb. 8, and learned quite a bit, besides having a blast.

The big day arrived on May 26. The Class of '72 took the big step and graduated from East Charles Mix # 102.

Dave Rezac, Vice-President, Barb Frager, Secretary-Treasurer, and Mike Novak, President.

Senior Class History

Upon 8th graduation, eighty scared but eager "greenies" entered high school at East Charles Mix. Our class officers were President, Carol Hrdlicka, Vice-President, Barb Frager, Secretary, Joan Reuland, and Treasurer, Aileen Wiechmann, and our class advisors were Mrs. Brunken and Miss Baruth.

As we moved on to our Sophomore year, the size of our class decreased to 68. Some of our friends who left were Ron Kelly, Ellen Stedronsky, Doug Surat, Frank Weinstein, and Tom Wiblemo. Our class officers were President, Mike Novak, Vice-President, Dale Martin, and Secretary-Treasurer, Barb Frager, and our class advisors were Mr. Nedved and Mrs. Duncanson.

Next came our busy Junior year when we worked hard to raise money for the prom. We gained a couple of new students, Rachel McBride and Leo Westendorf, but lost a few more, so as Juniors we numbered 65. Our class officers were President, Ken Swatek, Vice-President, Rosie Soukup, Secretary, Rod Andersh, and Treasurer, Carol Hrdlicka. Our advisors were Mr. Carroll, Miss Baruth, and Mrs. Johannsen.

Finally we reached the year we'd all been waiting for, our Senior year. We started the year with 55 students, but during the year Eileen Metteer was married and left, and in January, we all suffered deeply with the loss of our classmate Larry Hoffmann. Later in the year we were joined by Ken Cermak. In the fall, the Homecoming King and Queen were Ken Swatek and Carol Hrdlicka. Our class officers were President, Mike Novak, Vice-President, Dave Rezac, and Secretary-Treasurer, Barb Frager, and our class advisors were Mr. Twit-ero and Mr. Behrend.

After many discussions, some heated, we decided on purple and lavender for our class colors, white mums for our flower, and "Remember yesterday; live for today; look forward to tomorrow" for our class motto.

As we see graduation approaching, we greet it with mixed emotions. We know we'll miss our days at East Charles Mix, but we look forward with eagerness to the challenges of the future.

The Class of 1972

Juniors' Goal Is the Prom

The Class of '73 entered their third year of high school with sixty-four students. The Juniors started off the year by electing Diane Bridge as their class President. Other officers were Lenny Koupal, Vice-President, Cheri Rezac, Secretary, and Dave Birger, Treasurer. Jill Dobesh and Neil Martin represented the Juniors in the student council. Barb Doty and Roy Johnson were chosen to be Homecoming attendants.

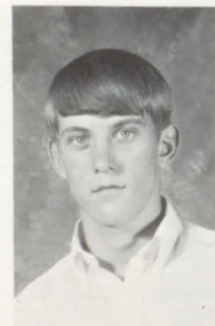

The Juniors, under the supervision of Miss Baruth and Mr. Carroll, worked hard during the year to raise money for the prom. Besides running the concession stand at games and matches, the Juniors held a popcorn ball sale and two sock hops.

The Juniors participated in the graduation ceremony by holding the ferns for the Seniors to walk under.

Sophomores Plunge Forward

Moving on to their second year, 63 sophomores again invaded the halls of Wagner High. To start the year off, they elected President Joe McBride, Vice President Dave Payer, and Secretary-Treasurer Gary Andersh. Representing the Sophomores in student council were Doug Hill and Ruth Beeson. Homecoming attendants were Randy Rezac and Jeanne Bren. To make some money and to do some foot stomp'n', the Sophomores sponsored a sock hop, inviting grades nine through twelve. Mrs. Wright and Mr. Shoepf were the class advisors.

Freshmen Discover High School

On August 26, 1971, 63 greenies trodded into Wagner High School. Although there was no official initiation, the Seniors took it upon themselves to welcome the Freshmen. Leading the class were President Lori Rezac, Vice President Don Doty, and Secretary-Treasurer Mike McGuire. Student Council representatives were Alan Peters and Nancy Smith, and Homecoming attendants were Lori Rezac and John Hollmann. To increase their treasury from zero to something, the Freshmen sponsored a roller-skating party. Their advisors were Mrs. Rasmussen and Mr. Kaberna.

Student Council Arranges for Exchange Student

In 1971-72 the Student Council was headed by President Duane Juran, Vice-President Dave Birger, and Sec.-Treas. Barb Rehwaldt. The advisors were Mr. Stabbe and Mr. Hall. Some of the projects they worked on were having a coat check at the Holiday Tournaments and helping with refreshments at the Christmas movie. Early in the school year a joint delegation of Student Council members and Seniors met with the School Board to discuss the dress code. After much debate, the School Board decided to set aside the dress code. Plans were made to have a Foreign Exchange student attend school at East Charles Mix during the 1972-73 school year.

The memories of Wagner Homecoming 1971-72 not only included coronation and the football game, but also the week-long campaign leading up to the big decision.

The candidates, Barb Frager, Rosie Soukup, Carol Hrdlicka, Mike Novak, Dale Martin, and Ken Swatek, were chosen by the Seniors to represent their class.

The Juniors chose Barb Doty and Roy Johnson as their attendants, while the Sophomores chose Jeanne Bren and Randy Rezac. Representing the Freshmen were Lori Rezac and John Hollmann.

After a hectic Thursday afternoon of skits and campaign promises, the entire student body had to make its final choice. The votes were cast, leading up to the exciting event of coronation on the evening of September 2.

Crownbearers for the evening were Page Wipf, Denise Pirner, Todd Bartunek, and Ronnie Kafka. Reading the histories of the candidates were Carleen Morgen, Barb Rehwaldt, Joan Reuland, Leo Westendorf, Dennis Koehn, and Mike Buus. Master of Ceremonies was Duane Juran. The football team was introduced by Coach Jenssen.

The moment finally came when Carol Hrdlicka and Ken Swatek were crowned Homecoming Queen and King. Receiving the football from Queen Carol was co-captain of the football team, Mike Novak.

Following the ceremony, the burning of the "W" and the bon fire were held. Friday a pep rally was held for the big game of the year. Burke beat Wagner, 20 to 8, but the spirit of Homecoming lingers on to this day.

"Colour My World"

The wonderful night of fun and romance had arrived. It started with the banquet, held at the Methodist Church. The tables were decorated with homemade candles and large, colorful flowers. Lenny Koupal was the Master of Ceremonies, Tim Masur read the Junior class prophecy, Carleen Morgen read the Senior class history, Rich Nedved read the Senior will, and Reverend Gies gave the benediction. Mrs. Brunken, guest speaker, spoke about the meaning of the theme song "Color My World." After a tasty meal of swiss steak and other goodies, everyone went to the Armory for the dance.

The multi-colored streamers, flowers, and candles set the stage for a fun-filled evening. In the center stood the fountain, encased by a heart-shaped archway. On either side was a punch bowl, which certainly served its purpose. Couples, relaxing and enjoying the surroundings, could be seen behind draped fishnets. Under a swooping roof, everyone danced to soft music, provided by the Symphonians. Later in the evening, Candy Ueker and Jim McGuire crowned the 1972 Prom Prince and Princess, Dave Birger and Jill Dobesh.

Mrs. Brunken, guest speaker at the banquet, spoke about the theme song, "Color My World."

Graduation 1972

Baccalaureate was held on Sunday, May 21. Reverend McBride was in charge of the event, giving the address. The Triple Trio sang "Let There Be Peace on Earth" and "I'll Walk with God."

Finally, after 13 years, came the night the Seniors had waited for. Carleen Morgen gave the welcome, Mike Novak read the class history, and Peggy Anderson and Barb Frager gave the address. Father Anderson gave the invocation, and the Triple Trio sang "Friends" and "Bless the Beasts and the Children."

The Senior class chose purple and lavender as its colors and the lavender mum as its flower. The class motto was "Remember Yesterday, Live for Today, Look Forward to Tomorrow."

Keeping all the wonderful memories in mind, the Seniors proceeded to receive their diplomas, which were presented by Wilbur Myers, President of the School Board. The thoughts of East Charles Mix will remain with the Class of 1972 in the many years to come.

The Juniors lead the procession.

Seniors, calming each other down, wish everyone luck in the future.

Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders did a great job this year in leading the student body. They put on skits with the pep club, did pom-pom routines, made signs for tournaments, sent mysterious "good-luck" letters, and, all-in-all, fired the team up. As we noticed, the cheerleaders performed new jumps, skits, cheers, and routines this year. These were due to the hard practice put in at the cheerleading clinics at Brookings. Jill D. and Barb H. attended one session that lasted a week, and the wrestling, and B-squad cheerleaders and Barb H. attended a session one Saturday. Thanks to this fine group of girls, the cheering section never faded out during our games and matches.

Team Takes 2nd in District

The "A" Squad basketball team started out as a young team with only three returning lettermen, Mike Buus, Duane Juran, and Dave Birger. Although only a young team, they finished the season with 10 wins and 12 losses. The team was lead in rebounds by Mike Buus. Neil Martin had the best free throw percentage. Dave Birger captured the Hustler of the Year and also the Overall Efficiency Rating. The "B" Squad had a fine season ending with 16 wins and 2 losses. The team looks forward to a more rewarding season next year due to more experienced players.

Jim goes for two.
