

Raider 1983

Dedication

"Mr. Awesome" was born on March 5, 1953, in Watertown, South Dakota. At the age of 10 he was whisked off to California by his parents where he got to know the sun and surf very well. Mr. O. returned to his native South Dakota where he attended Dakota State College in Madison. There he received his degree with a major in physical education and a minor in health. Mr. Osterday taught 2 years in Valentine, South Dakota, and coached football, basketball, wrestling, and track before coming to Wagner with his wife Karla and daughter Angela.

When arriving in Wagner, he immediately taught his athletes the "wonder-diet" of a diet-pepsi and a snicker. This diet brought our 1982-83 football team to a state victory. Newly arrived son, Brian, admires his father and hopes to grow up to be a "chip off the old block."

In Memory Of

Becky Bradley

Because I Could Not Stop for Death
-Emily Dickinson

Because I could not stop for Death,
He kindly stopped for me;
The carriage held but just ourselves
And Immortality.

We slowly drove, he knew no haste,
And I had put away
My labor, and my leisure too,
For his civility.

We passed the school where children played
Their lessons scarcely done;
We passed the fields of gazing grain,
We passed the setting sun.

We paused before a house that seemed
A swelling in the ground;
The roof was scarcely visible,
The cornice but a mound.

Since then 'tis centuries; but each
Feels shorter than the day
I first surmised the horses' heads
Were toward eternity.
