SENIOR HISTORY

For twelve years, we the Seniors looked forward to the night for presentation of Diplomas. Our heart heart beat lost its steadiness as the moment of departure gradually arrived.

We think back to our Freshman year--none other could compare to it. There were then 38 of us, each just as green as the other, but that was soon overcome.

By the time we were Sophmores our class was well represented in extra curricular activities. The Honor Roll, too, was filled out when our names were added. The most exciting event of the year was a hayrack party, when the hayrack accidentally tipped over.

Our Junior year, yes, that was one where we really kept busy. Our class play "Busy as a Beaver" went over big and even supplied us with enough money to give the banquet and prom. That was a wonderful evening for us all, the theme being "Maytime."

Being a Senior was a lot of fun but the days passed much too fast. We had many exciting events. We sponsored an all high school party which turned out successfully. Our candidate for Carnival Princess was Gwen Cork. The play we presented was "His Ozark Cousin," which was well suited to our sense of humor.

May we take our proper place among the alumni of Wagner High School as we prove our success in the world.

Class History

The school year of '46-'47 was a busy one for the Junior Class.

The main event was the Junior-Senior banquet and prom. The theme was "The Stork Club" of New York which was cleverly carried out.

We have had several ways of earning money for the banquet. Ten students were chosen from our class to present the comedy "Flyin' High" which was most successful. Another means was selling pop corn at basketball games. Many activities which were enjoyed by everyone.

Our class float tied for first with the Senior float on Homecoming Day, although it was dampened a bit due to the incessant down pour. It was an old fashion buggy brightly decorated.

Also our class came in second in the Carnival Princess Contest. The candidate from our class was Carol Yungbluth.

All in all '46-'47 was a very successful year for the Junior Class but we hope to be more successful as we go through our Senior year and future life.

The Freshman Class has been active in all activities and as their candidate for Homecoming princess they chose Marilyn Eggers and through their efforts she won this title. Attendants to the King and Queen were Viola Andersh, Dick Barta, Marilyn Eggers and Donald Fredrich. Throughout the year the class has had many parties including a Xmas and Valentine party. School is out and the Freshman would take another step in their education and replace the Sophomore Class of 46-47
