ONE LAST TIME

For the Seniors, "One Last Time" was a theme they heard often. One last homecoming, one last game or match, and one last prom were "one lasts" that no one wanted to end. One last term paper, one last test, and one last day were "one lasts" that were accepted more graciously.

For the football players, their last season was a disappointing one, but it will leave many great memories of comradeship. Basketball season came to a quick ending for the senior girls and boys basketball players, but the memories will not end soon. Wrestling season could not have gone better for the senior wrestlers. Taking State this year had to make their last wrestling match a memorable one. For the volleyball players, making it to State was a major goal. Achieving that goal made saying good-bye just a little bit easier. Nicki Donelan, the lone senior gymnast, had a hard time saying good-bye to the sport she loved so much. Her "one last" season has left her with many great memories and friends that will last forever.

Homecoming week is a "one last" that few seniors will forget. Spirit week was filled with days of fun and excitement, while senior skits, as usual, have left the teachers with a few things to think about. Jeff Podzimek and Nicki Donelan will not soon forget being crowned homecoming king and queen. Prom, with the theme "Hold A Dream", was a night to remember. Graduation day came too soon for most seniors. Stepping into the school for the last time as a student was very hard, but stepping out "One Last Time" was even harder.

Laura Dvorak as Batman, Nicki Donelan and Jacque Wranek as M&M's, and Kelly Hosek as himself share their Halloween spirit.

Jeannie Becvar, Laura Dvorak, Jody Weber, Tony Harrell, Teresa Peters, and Kim Link show off their Halloween costumes during psychology.

The past school year has been kept under control thanks to our administration, consisting of Roger Wiltz, Vernal Andersen, and Marlene Stone, and to our school board, consisting of Dean Weber, John Uecker, Don Hosek, Karol Kocer, Dave Robertson, Vern Donnell, and Dianne Thaler.

Roger Wiltz, principal, oversaw both junior and senior high. His responsibilities and duties included things such as class scheduling, curriculum, teaching staff evaluations, extra curricular activities, and most importantly, discipline.

Vernal Andersen, who was new to our administration this year, served as superintendent of schools. Not only was he to prepare the agenda for board meetings, but was also required to make sure everything else throughout the school ran smoothly. This required him to oversee instruction, maintenance, transportation, and meals.

Marlene Stone, business manager, managed the school's finances. Her job included things such as managing the budget, preparing the payroll, keeping accounts, and ordering supplies.

The seven school board members met once a month to make major decisions for the school. These people were in charge of school policies and how money is to be spent. They also have a responsibility of dealing with many other issues which come about during the year.

Thanks to the administration and school board the whole school year ran smoothly. Decisions were made creating a good environment for everyone.

Skills are Taught

Skills are not only learned by students but are taught by teachers who care. All teachers have different ways of expressing that they care about the future of their students, one of which is by giving homework.

Two teachers were asked the same question. When asked, "What are your main goals in teaching?" Kent Baldwin responded, "My goal is to increase students appreciation of music."

On the other hand, Dianne Wiechmann said, "To make students understand that learning can be fun."

Teachers have goals to accomplish. They have to accomplish their goals because they care about what kind of life their students will have.

Freshmen Year

Finally the class of 1997 were "FRESHMEN". Along with being a freshman comes the good and the bad. When asked what do you like most about being a freshman? Lorie Swatek said, "Getting initiated was fun but very embarrassing!" Bob Swatek and Lorie Swatek were chosen for Homecoming attendants. All the freshmen will remember homecoming week.

Members of the freshman class participated in and cheered on sports such as football, girls basketball, gymnastics, volleyball, wrestling, boys basketball and track.

The freshman class members will strive for the best in life and are ready to attend their freshmen classes one last time.

Experienced Sophomores

With one year of experience under their belt the class of '96" advanced to their sophomore year.

During the school year, members of the sophomore class participated in football, girls and boys basketball, wrestling, volleyball, gymnastics and track. They helped boost school spirit by cheering at games.

The sophomore class has represented Wagner well at choral and band festivals and contests.

They look forward to their junior year and hope that it will bring as many good times and great experiences as the past year.

Juniors Few in Number

Because the Juniors have such a small number, it made them work that much more in order to have a successful prom. Many people said that they'd never be able to pull it off, but the Juniors proved them wrong. On May 7th, the Juniors put on prom with "Hold the Dream" as their theme, and it turned out to be a huge success. No matter if it be prom, sports, music, or any other activity, the Juniors have always worked hard to achieve their goals.

A Long Way

We have come a long way,
Yet there is still so much to say.
We've experienced both joy and strife,
But still we've managed to go on with life.
We have been friends for many years
Through both laughter and tears.
But soon we must say goodbye.
It will be hard not to cry,
But if we do let our tears show,
They will remind us of what we know:
That even when we make our new starts,

Our memories will always live in our hearts.

Homecoming week was the first big event of the Seniors' last year.
Somewhere amid dressing up like our favorite teachers and as twins, a Homecoming King and Queen were chosen. The honors were given to Jeff Podzimek and Nicki Donelan.

The Senior class has always had a talent for extra-curricular activities ranging from athletics to music and this year was no different. The athletes enjoyed successful seasons with several members making it to State in their sports. They managed to survive Mrs. Schoepf's English class completing a term paper and learning all about Shakespeare and Macbeth in the process.

The second semester brought about the long-awaited Senior lounge and open study hall privilege. The Seniors sat back and enjoyed the Prom this year instead of agonizing over it.

In May, the entire Senior class gathered for "One Last Time."
Graduation was a special event that will always last in our memories.

The Seniors will always enjoy the memories they made at Wagner Community School and hopefully they also will be remembered for the contributions they made to the school.

Support Staff Helps Students

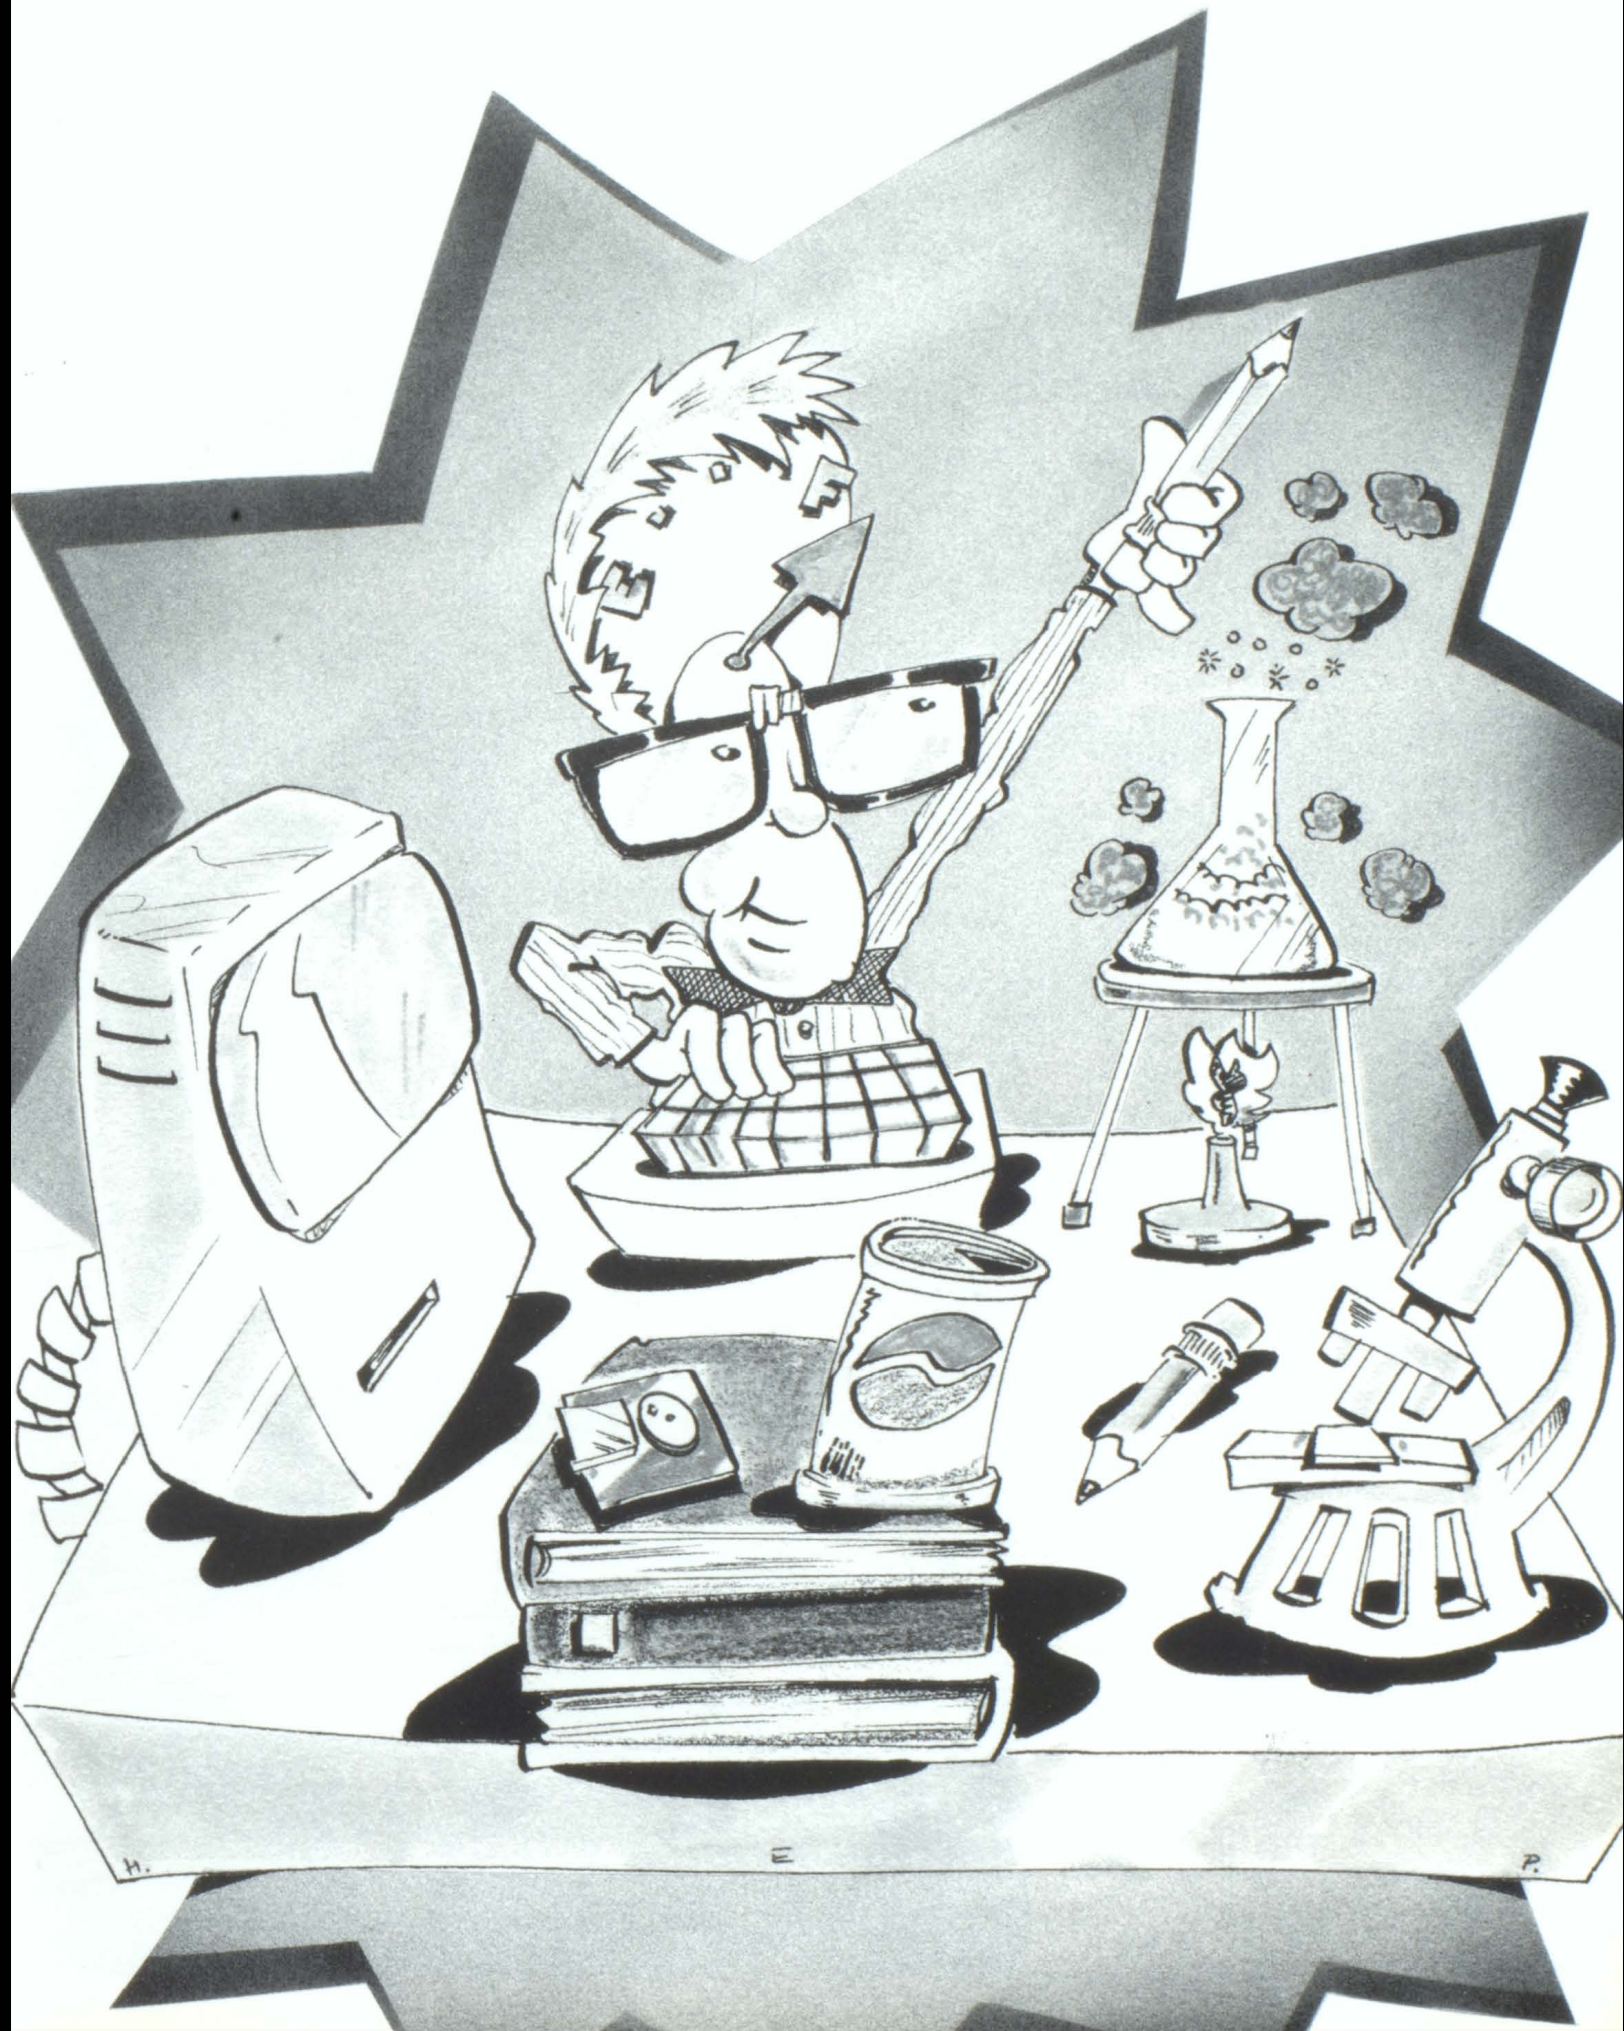

The support staff for the school year has helped out many of the kids and teachers this year. We can always count on a healthy breakfast to start our day off and continue our day strong from the delicious dinner we receive from the cooks. Our janitors help clean the building and always make sure that everyone receives a little "hi" to make their day. The bus drivers make sure that we get to and from our sport or music event safely. They are always here on time which makes it easier for us. The secretaries are a big part of our day. They make sure that we get all the messages we need and that we get a tardie slip if we need one. They make sure that we get on the bus if we are late by contacting the bus drivers on the CB. The support staff here at Wagner Community School are a big part of each day.

Students Challenge Themselves for the Future

This year the Wagner High School students entered a new year. The freshman now are able to type with Mrs. Youngbluth's help. They also learned angles and solved equations with letters.

The sophomores entered into the world of "Julius Caesar". They had a lot of fun dissecting crayfish and yellow perch in biology.

The juniors entered into the world of Algebra II where they learned how to solve more complex letter equations and understood them too! (Not!) Later in the year, the juniors struggled through their term papers and learned more about their topic of choice.

The seniors were busy this year studying about the human nature in psychology class. In government, the seniors learned how our government works by taking a trip to Pierre to see the legislature in action.

Overall the Wagner High School students have had a very studious year and have had success in all they have done.

During Homecoming week, Advanced Biology class is a zoo. Special members of the zoo are Kelly Hosek, Stacy Holzbauer, and Jamie Schroeder.

The seniors always found Psychology class stimulating.

The computer class (Lee Howard, Jennifer Isebrands, Joey Jurgensen, Jeff Podzimek, and Dan Swatek) seems to be working very hard to achieve the best knowledge of computers.

Dedicated mathematicians in Algebra II class are Rhiana Payer, Gina Olson, Kerry Swatek, Damian Peters, Adam Uchtyl, Leslie Dupuy, Chessa Buchholz, and Jennifer Kuhlman.

Mr. Nedved's biology class (Kerri Donnell, Angie Peters, Jennifer Isebrands, Jennifer Niyah, Jamey Meyer, Jennifer Kerr, Charlotte Rezac, Melissa VandenHoek, Nick Courmoyer, Leslie Dupuy, Jacob Soukup, Jason Weber, and Dan Swatek) discovers more about the wonderful world of plants and animals.

The trumpets (Jamie Schroeder, Damian Peters, Adam Wiechmann, Jeremy Robertson, Jason Bures, Wyatt Honomichl, and Casey Payer) take a lesson from Mr. Baldwin about playing the right notes.

Awards Night

Awards night was held May 2. In addition to those receiving awards who are pictured, Nicki Donelan and Stephanie Johnson received the Buches Scholarships. Dustin Reinbold received the Mary Ann Quinn Memorial Scholarship, the Scott Daniel Harrell Memorial Scholarship, and the Wagner Community Hospital/R.W. Honke. Tony Harrell received a R.O.T.C. Scholarship. The American Legion Scholarships were received by Jeff Thaler and Laura Dvorak. Mr. Wiltz presented Teresa Peters and Laura Dvorak the Dorothy E. Newbauer English Award Scholarship. Mr. Wiltz also presented the McNary Enterprises Information Center Scholarship to Kelly Kuhlman. The Wagner Rotary Club Scholarships was received by Teresa Peters and Tony Harrell. Dustin Reinbold and Laura Dvorak received the Masonic Lodge #139 Scholarships. Kay Eitemiller and Dustin Reinbold received the Wagner Community Club Scholarships. The Thomas A. Kocer Knights of Columbus Memorial Scholarships were received by Jeff Podzemik and Tony Harrell. Mr. Wiltz presented Laura Dvorak with the R.W. Honke, Sr. & Frances Honke Memorial Scholarship. The Ed Jaeger memorial Scholarship was presented to John Ehrisman.

Receiving the Speech Excellence Award is Teresa Peters.

Team Has Great Year

The Quiz bowl team had a great year. They started off by participating in the South Central at Wagner. Ten teams participated with Wagner finishing second. The questions were from a variety of subjects.

On April twenty-fifth, they went to the Scotland Invitational. The team placed third.

Knowledge Master, a computerized quiz bowl, was new to Wagner this year. There was a junior high team and a senior high team consisting of one to over sixty members. The teams answered two hundred questions from fourteen curriculum areas. The results are phoned in to Knowledge Master and then the official results told the ranking of the teams according to state and nation wide. Wagner's high school team ranked seventh in the state.

Students Honored

Becoming an Honor Society member is a great honor. A student must have a 3.0 grade point average. They are also judged on these four main points: (1) Scholarship, (2) School and Community service, (3) Leadership, and (4) Character dealing with attitude and honesty. This year the Honor Society took a trip to Sioux Falls for a day that included shopping and a movie.

New Vocal Director

This year Wagner's chorus started out with a new face in charge, that of Miss Torsensen. The year began with the selection of Swing Choir members, All-Staters, and their alternates.

The first performance for the group was as part of the Area Chorus Festival in Avon on October 18. The chorus performed as part of a large group with chorus members from other schools.

All-Staters then participated in the All-State Chorus which was held in Aberdeen on November 5-6. Wagner was represented by Tony Harrell, Matt Cihak, Teresa Peters and Kim Link.

The annual Music contest was originally scheduled for February 2 in Lake Andes, but due to snowy weather was rescheduled for February 7. All the soloists, duets, and groups did a nice job.

Throughout the year the Christmas, Spring, and Pops concerts were also performed to entertain parents, friends, and the community.

Tony Harrell and Teresa Peters attended Honor's Choir.

All-Staters and their alternates are (sitting) Nicki Donelan, Scott Kisely, Stacy Holzbauer, (kneeling) Carl Kisely, Matt Cihak, (standing) Kim Link, Tony Harrell, and Teresa Peters.

Band Marches

The band got off to a great start this year by marching in Fish Days, Czech Days, and Labor Day. They played at numerous football, basketball, and volleyball games. With Christmas on its way, the band started practicing Christmas music for the concert. The concert was a big success. The band planned to go to Kimball for a solo/ensemble contest but due to bad weather, it was cancelled. Schnaya Baldwin and Jacob Soukup participated in the Augie

Band Festival held on November 19 and 20. Seventeen of the band students took part in the Area Wide Band Festival under direction by Lon Sweet on March 14. The band then prepared for the Spring Concert. They practiced hard and it showed. The band trip was April 27 through May 1. They headed to Branson, Missouri to see shows, visit cities, and go to a baseball game. The Pops Concert was held on May 12. The band sounded good.

The members who went to the Augie Band Festival are Schayna Baldwin and Jacob Soukup.

Four Travel to State

The Oral Interp team started off the year traveling to Dakota Wesleyan University. The team did quite well with Matt Cihak receiving four superiors, Stacy Holzbauer receiving three, and Teresa Peters, Donnelle Wiechmann, and Lee Howard each receiving one. The Team then traveled to Madison to compete there for the first time. No One placed but it was good experience for all. Local contest was then held. All the contestants did well but only the top in each category could go on to Districts. Matt took top honors in Drama with "The Diviners". Jennifer Courmoyer took second with "The Miracle Worker". A cutting from "Fried Green Tomatoes" read by Teresa won the Serious Prose. Matt took the honors in Humorous with "Pioneer, Go Home". Donnelle was second with "My Fair Lady". Stacy won the poetry contest with her cuttings from "The Flying Change". Nicole Sanderson was second with "Ogden Nash on Money". Duet was won by Teresa and Laura Dvorak with "The Bad Seed", and a new category, Readers Theatre, was won by Matt, Laura, Teresa, and Stacy with their cutting "The House on Mango Street".

The four then traveled to Districts in Scotland. After a long day, Matt went on in Humorous and Teresa in Prose. Stacy advanced in Poetry, and the Readers Theatre went on also.

The four next traveled to Mitchell for Regions. Matt and Teresa both advanced, but Stacy came a little short. The biggest surprise, though, came at the end of the contest when Wagner was announced to go to state in Readers Theatre. The four would advance to the next level.

Once at state the four did quite well. Readers Theatre received a excellent for their hard work. Teresa also received an excellent while fighting a cold. Matt brought home the gold. he accomplished his goal and received a superior. All in all the season went quite well.

FFA Chapter Has Prosperous Year

The FFA chapter of Wagner had a prosperous year. The chapter started out the year with land judging. The team did quite well with an outstanding fifth place. Jeremy Robertson and Mike Blaha then traveled on to Kansas City for National Convention. The corn test plot was a huge success despite the wet year. Leadership contest was held with the Wagner chapter taking a Parliamentary Procedure team for the first time. They did quite well and received second place. Stacy Holzbauer won the Public Speaking Contest and later went on to state to place sixth. Kevin Kaberna was also elected as a district officer at the contest.

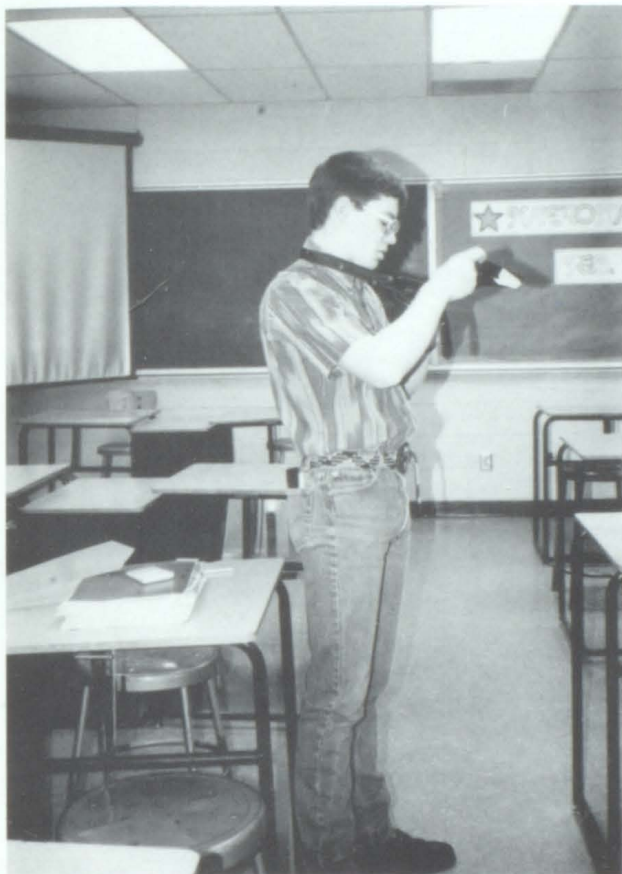

The FFA chapter had many fund raising activities this year. They had a booth at the Mid-Winter Fair where they sold pig pullers and raccoon traps. They also held a gun raffle for a twelve-gauge shot gun.

The chapter then went to state convention. All year the FFA'ers had been preparing for this event by studying for their contests. The chapter did quite well and received many silver and bronze certificates.

Next, the chapter held their Parent-Member Banquet. The awards from state convention and Chapter Farmer Awards were given. The Parliamentary Procedure team gave a demonstration and Stacy Holzbauer gave her award winning speech. Bob Thaler then gave a speech on his trips to China and the former Soviet Union.

Over all the year went quite well for the FFA chapter and the FFA'ers will have many memories to take with them.

Annual Staff Records Memorable Year

The annual staff this year had the important job of recording all of the memories created at Wagner High School. By taking pictures and writing stories, the members captured some of the best times throughout the year.

With the help of Mrs. Twitero, the staff had to meet deadlines to ensure a complete annual full of wonderful memories. The first deadline to be met was for the ad sales. Area businesses were offered a space for advertising in the back of the annual. Those sales are what made the year book possible. Then, every member was assigned several pages to be completed by a certain date. Mrs. Twitero always had her pink passes ready to be sure that all pages were done on time. After much time and dedication, the year was preserved forever in print.

The newspaper staff was responsible every month for keeping the student body informed about the events around school. This year Mrs. Youngbluth, adviser, held several meetings to take suggestions on how to make the paper even better. Though many ideas were named, not many new articles made it to the "Raider Report." Of course the senior spotlights, jokes, word find, horoscope and calender of events were still featured.

The newspaper staff consisted of people in grades seven through twelve. Included were three editors who handed out writing assignments, put the paper together, and typed all articles, and two junior editors who were totally in charge of the May edition of the "Raider Report."

Jen Kuhlman happily takes time out of her study hall to type a page for the monthly newspaper.

The senior editors include (sitting) Kelly Kuhlman, Laura Dvorak, and Kay Eitemiller. The junior editors are (standing) Rhiana Payer and Matt Cihak.

Thirty Join Culture Club

The Culture Club, currently consisting of approximately 30 members, had an extremely active year. The club, which promotes positive actions and provides new opportunities, is open to students in grades seven through twelve.

The students participating in Culture Club held many fund raisers to help finance the club's many activities. The selling of school mugs, raffle tickets and candy and sponsoring several school dances were a few of the many fund raisers completed.

The students did several community service projects throughout the year which included cleaning the highway ditches north and west of town, serving the meal at the Duck's Unlimited and Loyalty Day Banquet's and talking to grade school students about the harmful effects of drugs and alcohol.

Some of the trips taken this year included attending two Sky Force games, two rollerskating parties, a downhill and cross-country ski outing to the Black Hills, several college plays and touring the art and music departments at USD.

After school was out, a year-end trip was planned for those students who remained active and earned enough points throughout the year. Overall, Culture Club had a very successful year.

Council Active

The Student Council members have been extremely active with many projects this year which included choosing themes for Homecoming week Spirit Days, sponsoring the Christmas wall decorating contest, cleaning trash from roadside ditches, sponsoring a Halloween costume contest, providing a movie at Christmas time and sponsoring a Scavenger Hunt.

Spectators were entertained as the senior class initiated the freshmen at a home girls' basketball game. Participating in the activities are Jeremy Payer, Jerod Slaba, Wyatt Honomichl, Jason Krcil, Jeremy Isebrands, Riley Holzbauer and Brian Schroeder.

Sports

Kelly Kuhlman, Jennifer Kuhlman, Kim Link, and Laura Dvorak received awards in volleyball.

Laura Dvorak, Tony Harrell, and Dustin Reinbold received the Athlete of the Year Awards.

Athletic and Music Awards

This year's Athletic Banquet was held on May 19. It began with a banquet held in the gym and from there went to the theater where the awards were presented. Mr. Nedved was the Master of Ceremonies and each of the coaches spoke briefly about their sport.

Awards for football were given to Jeremy Robertson, Jason Krcil, Jeff Podzimek, Tony Harrell, and Dustin Reinbold; for boys basketball: Jason Kocer, Kevin Kaberna, Jason Krcil, Dustin Reinbold, and Brian Schroeder; for girls basketball: Jennifer Kuhlman, Angie Peters, Kay Eitemiller, and Laura Dvorak; in gymnastics: Jennifer Uherka and Nicki Donelan; in volleyball: Kelly Kuhlman, Kim Link, Jennifer Kuhlman, Laura Dvorak, and Jamie Uecker; in track: Priscilla Stevens, Aaron Podzimek, Rhiana Payer, Dustin Reinbold, and Kim Link; in wrestling: Traves Slaba, Danny Swatek, Jeremy Robertson, Tony Harrell, and Jeff Podzimek. Laura Dvorak, Tony Harrell, and Dustin Reinbold were chosen as athletes of the year.

At the Pops Concert on May 12th, Tony Harrell was awarded with the John Phillip Sousa Award for being the outstanding senior music student in Wagner.

The John Phillip Sousa Award went to Tony Harrell.

Cheerleaders Selected

The cheerleaders kept the spirit going this year with many things. They hung up posters, locker mates, created new cheers and led a few pep rallies.

As the seasons went on, the cheerleaders got the crowd and students to preform cheers with them. The cheerleaders did something different this year, they got the whole crowd in the "bunny hop" and doing the cheer "Raider train." As the cheerleaders did their cheers and routines, the crowd got involved and "pumped up" the Raiders! Hopefully the spirit the girls gave this year will continue to follow the Wagner teams.

Football cheerleaders with spirit are Gina Olson, Janelle Swatek, Kerry Swatek, Kerry Irwin, mascot Kelly Kuhlman, Nicki Donegan, and Kay Eitemiller.

Members of the 93-94 Varsity team are Kay Eitemiller, Jennifer Kuhlman, Jamie Uecker, Coach Gullickson, Assistant Coach Fiegen, Laura Dvorak, Kelly Kuhlman, Manager Kerri Donnell, Angie Peters, Heidi Coleman, Debra Winckler, Kim Krcil, and Nicole Sanderson.

Two Letterwinners Return

The team had two returning letterwinners from last year, they were Laura Dvorak and Jamie Uecker. Even though the team did not have one of the best seasons they had a win against Bonesteel/Fairfax. Some team statistics were a 32% field goal shooting and a 50% free-throw shooting. The team also had 490 rebounds. Letterwinners for the year were Laura Dvorak, Jamie Uecker, Kelly Kuhlman, Kay Eitemiller, Jennifer Kuhlman, Angie Peters, and Kim Krcil. Laura Dvorak also qualified for All Conference and All Academic awards.

Spirit Remembered

Although the team's record ended at 1-7, their spirit and determination, along with many good memories, will not be forgotten. The players and their positive attitudes have made everyone, including themselves, happy with their season.

Statistical leaders for this year included Travis Slaba with 373 rushing yards, Kelly Hosek with 201 passing yards, and Jeff Podzimek, the defensive leader, with an outstanding record of 55 solo tackles and 83 assisted tackles and also 2 blocked extra points. Jeff was also voted Most Valuable Player. Seventh at State

The volleyball team had a season record of 22-11-2 and placed seventh in the State Tournament.

Determination, and teamwork proved to be the inspiring factors that led the Raiders to a successful season. The Raiders captured the District 9A by playing motivated volleyball. The team then prepared physically, and mentally for their tough competition at Regions. The volleyball team proved to be the better of the two teams at Regions and headed for the State tournament. After the State Tournament the Raiders came home with seventh place.

Wrestlers On Top

The Raider wrestling squad came through on top once again. They entered the state tournament undefeated and finished as the 1994 State Champions. Although it was a close race between Wagner and Webster the attitudes and enthusiasm of the squad and the fans brought them out on top.

When Coach Scherr was asked about the season he commented, "It was a great year highlighted by a state-championship team effort. It is not very often as a coach that you have such a group of talented wrestlers. It was not only a successful season, but it was also a fun season."

The season ended with just seven wrestlers placing at the state tournament but every wrestler on the squad helped get the Raiders the state title. Dan Swatek and Travis Slaba were state champions, while Tony Harrell, Jeff Podzimek, Jeremy Robertson, and Jason Weber placed fifth. John Ehrisman placed seventh and though they did not place Greg Turner and Carl Kisely contributed to the team score.

The four seniors had these comments about their last season as Student manager Matt Waber, and statisticians DeNelle Fechner and Becky Becvar assisted the squad.

The senior squad members for this season are (back row) Jeff Podzimek, John Ehrisman, Tony Harrell and (front row) Jeremy Robertson.

Raider wrestlers:

John Ehrisman-"I thought the year went well and everyone on the team was fun to work with especially the coaches. Winning the state title was the best feeling for the year of '94. Good luck next year."

Jeff Podzimek-"I think the wrestling team this year was like a family. Everyone supported everyone else and we had a good season and a great state tournament."

Tony Harrell-"I thought wrestling had a great year, going undefeated in dual meets, and winning the state tournament for the second time in three years. It was a team effort and the team couldn't have done much better."

Jeremy Robertson-"I think we had a great year and winning the state tournament was probably the best way to end the 93-94 season."

Being the state champions was a great way to end the season and to add to a great year Assistant Coach Tom Studelska was awarded with the Assistant Coach of the Year award.

Many New Gymnasts

This year's gymnastics team began with two returning coaches, Mrs. SyljuBerget and Miss Soukup, and many new faces to accompany the returning gymnasts. Although it was a young team, it was a team full of energy.

The team started out the season at home by hosting the Wagner Invitational. Throughout December, January, and February the team competed in many tournaments and met a goal of earning 110 points by scoring 111.4 points at Miller's Invitational. The team, led by Senior Nicki Donelan, made a good showing at Regions by placing fourth.

Qualifying for the state meet individually were Nicki Donelan, all-around, bars, and beam; Lorie Swatek, Vault; and Donnelle Wiechmann, beam. All three girls did very well and came very close to placing.

Throughout the season, the girls competed in the following events: Nicki Donelan on all-around; Jamey Meyer on all-around; Lee Howard on all-around; Jennifer Uherka on vault, floor, and bars; Sarah Winckler on beam; Jennifer Kerr on beam and floor; Priscilla Stevens on vault, floor, and bars; Donnelle Wiechmann on beam and floor; Michelle Zolnowsky on beam, vault, and floor; Lorie Swatek on all-around; Debra Winckler on beam, vault, and floor; Desarae Hahn on beam, vault, and floor; Angie Wilson on beam, floor, and bars; Angela Loperena on beam, vault, and floor; Molly Swatek on beam, vault, and floor; Nichole Wiechmann on all-around; Suzanne Sully on all-around; Jessica Slaba on beam, vault, and bars; Rhonda Beeson on all-around; Sara Uherka on all-around; and Janelle Bastemeyer on beam, vault, and bars.

Record Five and Fourteen

This season wasn't the greatest season for the Raider basketball team. This seasons record ended up with the varsity record at five and fourteen, and the junior varsity with a five and thirteen record. The teams that the varsity team beat were Geddes, Plankinton, Dakota Christian, Andes Central, and Marty. The Raiders beat the Marty Braves in overtime to give the Raiders an exciting victory on parents night. This years letter winners are Jason Krcil, Kelly Hosek, Mike Kuhlman, Dustin Reinbold, Brian Schroeder, Chris Howard, Damian Peters, and Kevin Kaberna.

Five to State

Five members of the girls track team earned the privilege of competing in the state meet held in Spearfish. Rhiana Payer qualified in the triple jump and long jump, while Lorie Swatek made it in the 100 meter hurdles. The 400 meter relay team consisting of Kerry Swatek, Nicki Donelan, Rhiana Payer and Kim Link earned the right to compete in the state meet. They were unable to place at the state level.

The state meet topped off a season of hard work and desire to do as well as possible. The first part of the season found the weather being a factor, as one meet was cancelled due to a late spring snowstorm. The team participated in about two meets per week. The meets and practices kept the team busy.

Letter winners for the team included Nicki Donelan, Laura Dvorak, Kim Link, Kerry Swatek, Janelle Swatek, Rhiana Payer, Sadie Reiser, Priscilla Stevens, Lorie Swatek and Michelle Zolwnowsky.

Two Make State

This year's track season got off to a cold start, as the first track meet was canceled due to snow. Once the weather started to warm up, so did the boy's track team. Once hand-offs were perfected, their relays really started to take off. The boys made a strong showing in the conference meets and at Regions. At Regions, the 3200 meter and 1600 meter relays placed third, just coming short of making it to State. Jeff Podzimek and Dan Swatek earned the right to go to State by placing first and second in the pole vault at Regions.

The entire cast and production crew for the Missoula play "Hansel and Gretel," take a curtain call after a wonderful performance.

Hansel and Gretel

This year, the Missoula Children's Theatre, with the help of Wagner Community School, presented the play, "Hansel and Gretel" on November 8. Auditions were held on Monday of that week and after many rigorous rehearsals, the cast presented two performances: one for the elementary school on Friday and one for the public on Saturday night.

Although there were few roles for high school members, the people who had parts did an exceptional job.

Auditions were held by Missoula Theatre representatives, Bret Tuomi and April Holladay.

Heather Kreeger, an assistant director, performs one of her many duties, applying make-up to a Camper in the Missoula play, "Hansel and Gretel."

Kevin Kaberna and his sidekick, Jason Bures, hold the school administrators, Donnelle Wiechmann and Kelly Kuhlman, hostage.

"Toga! Toga! Toga!"

In the play, "Toga! Toga! Toga!," Matt Cihak inherits a house from his great uncle and he turns it into Alpha Beta House, a fraternity with several members including Danny Swatek, Jeremy Robertson, Tony Harrell and Carl Kisely.

In order to keep up payments, however, Matt has to rent rooms to several boarders including a gypsy, Teresa Peters; a bag lady, Kim Link; a boxer, Bud Fox; and a rock band.

Matt has several enemies working against him. They include the school administration, a troublesome neighbor, a Health Department Inspector, and members of a rival fraternity.

Unfortunately, Matt is forced to give up the house, but all is not lost. The girls at Kennel High turn Alpha Beta House into a sorority!

Stacy Holzbauer and Laura Dvorak are shocked and dismayed when they catch Matt Cihak and Kerry Swatek kissing.

Spirit Filled Homecoming

Homecoming week was filled with great school spirit this year. Faculty Day started off the week. Coronation was held Monday night with Jeff Podzimek and Nicki Donelan being crowned the 1993-94 King and Queen by last year's King Jay Swatek and Queen Renee Wiechmann. The runners-up for King were John Ehrisman and Jason Krcil and Jody Weber and Kelly Kuhlman for Queen. Tuesday was Dress-up Day and Wednesday had everyone seeing double as it was Twin Day. Clash Day was Thursday and Friday was the traditional Red and White Day. Senior Skits were held Friday afternoon. Freshman had to wear bikinis, play musical chairs blindfolded, and eat caramel covered tomatoes. Throughout the week Freshman had to wear garbage sacks while carrying books, tying shoes, and pushing peanut butter with their noses. Despite the losses suffered by the girl's basketball team and football team the week was enjoyed by all.

Crowned as King and Queen for Homecoming 1993-94 are Jeff Podzimek and Nicki Donelan.

Tony Harrell served as Master of Ceremonies.

Campaign managers for the Homecoming candidates are (back) Teresa Peters for Nicki Donelan, Brian Schroeder for Jeff Podzimek, Kim Link for Kelly Kuhlman, (front) Tony Harrell for Jason Krcil, Jacque Wranek for Jody Weber, and Mike Kuhlman for John Ehrisman.

Damian Peters and Jamie Schroeder dressed as hippy twins for Twin Day.

Laura Dvorak and Matt Cihak are dressed as their favorite teachers Miss Lundy and Mr. Baldwin for Faculty Day.

Matt Cihak was Master of Ceremonies.

Jeff Podzimek gave the senior response.

Cecile Wiechmann was the guest speaker.

Hold The Dream

The Junior Class chose "Hold The Dream" as the theme and black, white, and teal as the colors for the prom held on May 7. Balloon clusters, partitions, balloon pedestals, and a balloon archway decorated the prom along with beautiful murals.

The memorabilia night began with the banquet being served by the junior class mothers. The program followed with Cecile Wiechmann as the guest speaker. After the program, parents and friends arrived to watch the Grand March. Everyone was kept entertained at the dance by Jon Michael's Sound System.

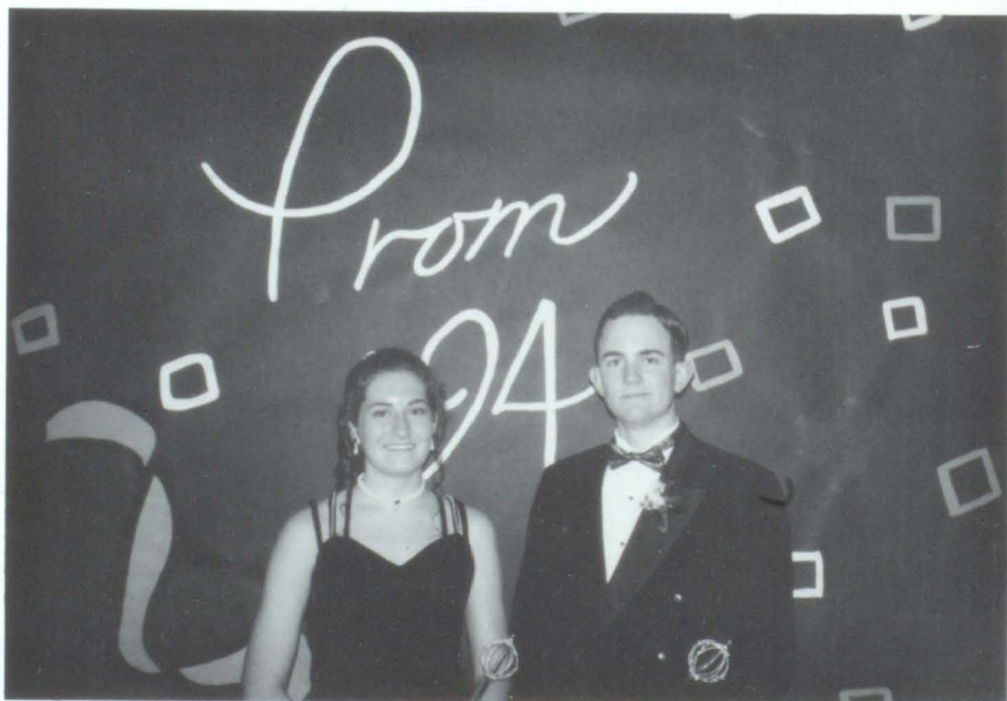

The After Prom Party started after the dance. Many people entered the dart and pool tournaments while others enjoyed playing ping-pong, Jenga, Twister, and watching movies. An auction was held before the drawing for the prizes. The night will definitely be remembered by all.

Chessa Buchholz read the prophecies.

Tony Harrell read the senior wills.

Jamie Schroeder and Jennifer Kuhlman were chosen as Prince and Princess.

Angie Peters and Teresa Peters share a moment at prom.

Kelly Kuhlman and John Ehrisman are chosen King and Queen.

Tony Harrell, class valedictorian, gave the address.

Dustin Reinbold read the class history.

Class of 1994 Graduates

On a sunny Sunday afternoon, May 29, 1994, thirty-three graduates received their diplomas from David Robertson, School Board Chairman.

Matthew Cihak played the Processional and Recessional. Providing music for the ceremony were the Swing Choir who sang "Hero," a group of seniors who sang "It's So Hard to Say Goodbye to Yesterday," and Kim Link and Teresa Peters who sang "A Bad Good-bye" to their classmates.

Kim Link gave the Invocation, followed by Teresa Peters who gave the Welcome, Dustin Reinbold, who gave the Class History, and Tony Harrell, who gave the Address. Jeremy Robertson ended the ceremony with the Benediction.

A slide presentation, showing the seniors as youngsters and also as young adults, and the presentation of flowers to parents brought tears to the eyes of many.

Class Motto:

We used to look upon the tears with laughter, but we never dreamed that we would look upon the laughter with tears.

The graduates who attended Wagner Community School from kindergarten through their senior include (back row) Jody Weber, Mike Kuhlman, Kelly Kuhlman, Brian Schroeder, Kerry Irwin, Ken Dilts, Kay Eitemiller, (second row) Jason Krcil, Jeannie Becvar, Mike Blaha, Jenny Bermudez, Steve Sip, Nicki Donelan, Brian Brown, Laura Dvorak, (front row) Jeremy Robertson, Laura Peters, Dustin Reinbold, Jamie Uecker, Kelly Hosek, DeNelle Fechner, Jeff Podzimek, Kim Link and John Ehrisman.

Tina Smejkal, Stacy Holzbour, Jen Kuhlman, Jamie Schroeder, Damian Peters, Rhiana Payer, and Matt Cihak take time out of Chemistry Class.

Mike Kuhlman takes a few minutes before he starts studying in study hall.

One Last Look, One Last Time

Another school year has gone by, and many lasting memories of Wagner High have been made. For the seniors all of these memories would be for one last time.

Homecoming started out our journey. The week started out with spirit days which included faculty day, dress-up day, twins day, clash day, and red and white day. Coronation and the crowning of Jeff Podzimek and Nicki Donelan as king and queen were some of the highlights.

Many sports memories were made throughout the year. The football team and girls basketball team both had new coaches. Each had successful seasons and lots of memories. The boys basketball had many exciting games and many lasting memories. The gymnastics team placed fourth in Regions and took three girls to State. The volleyball team won Districts and Regions, then traveled to state to receive seventh place. The wrestling team had a very rewarding season winning Districts, Regions, and a very emotional State Tournament. The girls and boys track teams also had a very successful season. Through it all, the cheerleaders were there to cheer the athletes on.

Many concerts, choral and band festivals, plays, and music contests were held to make more lasting memories. Prom with the theme "Hold the Dream" was one of the most memorable events.

The school year ended with graduation. The seniors graduated with mixed emotions, happy to have graduated yet uneasy about what lies ahead. For one last time, they looked back at the halls of Wagner High and the underclassmen were there to wish them luck. The memories they have made will never be forgotten.
