Homecoming 2006

Want a hamburger? Even the teachers got involved in the festivities this year. Above: Ms. Holzbauer and Mrs. Tolliver strut their stuff as their favorite condiments on Posse Day.

Left: Alex Permann and Mr. Dally work together to show the school Mr. Dally's performing talent on the banjo for the mock homecoming king and queen contest on homecoming day. Teachers showed their school spirit by making fools of themselves in front of the entire student body.

"Leadership to me means duty, honor, country. It means character, and it means listening from time to time."

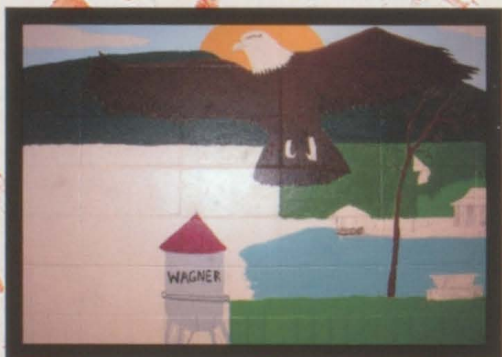

George W. Bush

2006-2007 Culture Club was a surprising and yet difficult year. The members of culture club were dedicated and surprised at some of the activities they fulfilled. When Culture Club was created, community service and trips to Yankton or Pickstown were the big things going on. Now Culture Club has evolved in a way where there are different projects, and bigger retreats. One surprise the members of Culture Club experienced was meeting some of the members of the Timberwolves Basketball Team and a TV star from Desperate Housewives. One big project that the members were excited about was the 3 on 3 Tournament here in Wagner, SD. However, all of these perks don't come that easy; the members must be dedicated and trustworthy to take part in jobs such as helping out, cleaning up the community, and being responsible. Culture Club is a great way to lend a hand and make the community a better place, and it will look good in your profile.

Art Club

Above left two pictures: The murals on the wall in the junior high hallway were constructed by art students, led by Miss Kewley.
Above right two pictures: Sarah Primeaux worked hard on the murals during the 2005-2006 school year, which started a crave for more art work in our building.

QUIZ BOWL

The Quiz Bowl Team members participated at the Winner, Wagner, Gregory, and KQ93 Radio Quiz Bowls. They did a wonderful job and represented Wagner High School very well.

GO TEAM

"In our lives we will encounter many challenges, and tomorrow we face one together. How we accept the challenge and attack the challenge head on is only about us--no one can touch that. If we win or lose this weekend, it will not make a difference in our lives. But why we play and how we play will make a difference in our lives forever."

---Beth Anders

Caught in Action!

"Every team requires unity. A team has to move as one unit, one force, with each person understanding and assisting the roles of his teammates. If the team doesn't do this, whatever the reason, it goes down in defeat. You win or lose as a team, as a family."

---Jack Kemp

"Victory isn't defined by wins or losses. It is defined by effort. If you can truthfully say, 'I did the best I could, I gave everything I had,' then you're a winner."

-Wolfgang Schadler

Laptops

One to One Initiative

Anna Jshmael and Marisa Joseph are hard at work with their new laptops.

James Payer, Kelsey Doom, and Bryce Eggers work with each other to solve a problem.

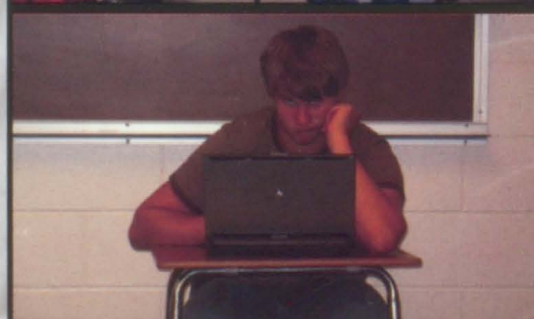

Brandon Soulek kicks back while working with his laptop.

Lit survey students type poems on their laptops while being instructed by Allison Hedge-Coke, the artist in residence for the 2006-2007 school year.

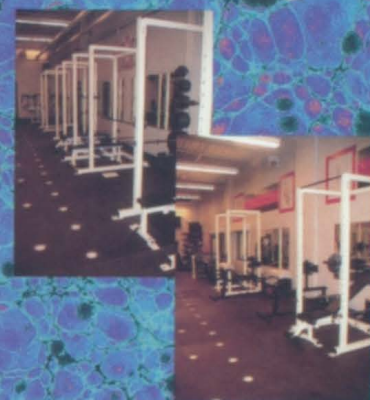

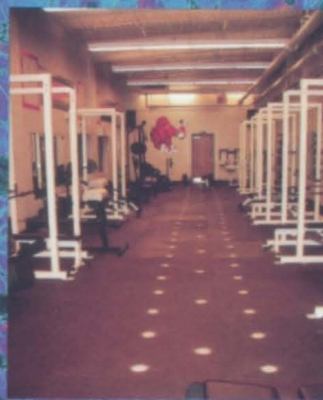

Tait Johannsen avoids laptop stress by zoning out during SRB.

The 2006-2007 school year was our trial year with the laptops. Students have taken multiple surveys on whether or not the laptops have been a great improvement, and teachers worked hard to incorporate the laptop technology into their classes everyday.

Weightlifting

The weight room is a place where Raider athletes have the chance to grow physically and mentally. The members are challenged by advisors and each other to exceed what they thought were their limits to reach their full potential.

Each club member is on a program called Bigger Faster Stronger (BFS), which is a scale compared to national averages. White Club is above average and it continues on from there.

RED RAIDERS

Cheerleading

Lets go Raiders!!!

This year there were three cheerleading squads, Football, Basketball, and Wrestling.

The Football cheerleading advisor was Becki Holzbauer. The football cheerleaders this year were Rachel Pravecek, Brittany Holzbauer, Samantha Dvorak, Amber Wilson, Becky Irwin, and Caitlin Kreeger. The girls fought through a few cold nights before making it into the play-offs. The team made it to the second round of play-offs where the girls cheered their team on.

The Basketball cheerleader advisor was Mieke Slaba. They started off with six cheerleaders in the beginning and ended up with four at the end. The cheerleaders were Anna Ishmael, Katrina McAdaragh, Megan Youngstrom and Ivy Sully. They cheered for both girls and boys basketball. The girls had a blast cheering their team on.

The Wrestling cheerleader advisor this year was Jody Kocer. The cheerleaders this year were Brittany Stone, Alysha Novachich, Whitney Dickerson, Mary Kocer, and Kristi Kokesh. This year Kristi Kokesh was awarded most dedicated. The girls this year went to state to cheer for the boys.

All the girls had to work at the home track meets to raise money for their cheerleading squad. The cheerleaders also decorated the lockers this year.
