Administration

Our administrators and school board provide direction for our school and, in doing so, make their mark on our lives.

Lory DuFrain,
Business Manager

Linda Foos, Superintendent

The four principals at Wagner Community School shape our lives and help us forge the future.

For juniors, life is about busy academic, athletic, and extracurricular schedules. Life for juniors is also about finding time to work in the concession stand to raise money and to plan and make preparations for the junior-senior prom. It is also about taking college/technical school entrance tests and preparing for life after WCS.

Students at WCS have a wide variety of activities in which they can choose to be involved: Chorus, Band, School Play, Oral Interp, Culture Club, Mentoring, Student Council, National Honor Society, JAG, FFA, Annual Staff, Newspaper Staff, and Quiz Bowl. Though students who elect to participate in these activities make their busy schedules even busier, activities are an integral part of life at WCS!

Events at WCS

Homecoming

Prom

Graduation

Events such as homecoming, prom and graduation are part of life at WCS. Assemblies such as the Veterans Day program and the Rachel's Challenge presentation enrich the lives of students. WCS students also enjoyed visits from Shoni Schimmel, Kevin Locke, and Meredith Gould, Miss South Dakota.

Veterans Day Program

Clockwise, from top left: King Trevor Lensing and Queen Jamie Anderson enjoyed the Burning of the W. Junior class officers Brooke Roth, Emily Brunsing, and Sadie Eitemiller welcomed guests to prom. Emily Brunsing, Cheyanne Buck, Sydney Dvorak, Tanner Kotab, Sadie Eitemiller, Chloe Noteboom, and Abby Beeson were among the students who assisted with the annual Veterans Day program.

Rachel's Challenge

FOR Club

For the second year, WCS students heard the message of Rachel Joy Scott. Rachel's message drives the activities of the Wagner FOR (Friends of Rachel) Club.

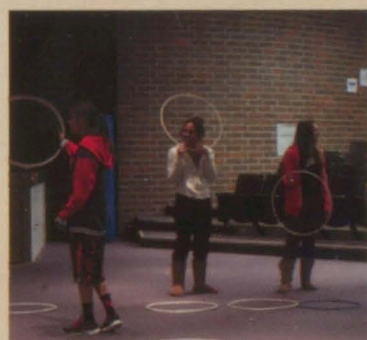

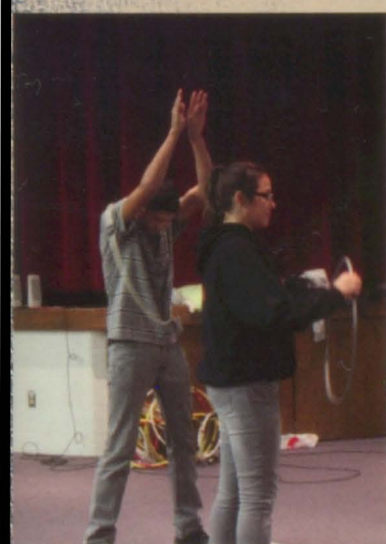

Veterans Day

Clockwise, from top photo: SFC C. Mark Roberts speaks at the annual Veterans Day program. Counselor Dana Sanderson introduces students who helped plan the program: including Jensen Holzbauer, Bree Meyer Irvin, Hailey Hilzendeger, Brooklyn Tolliver, Hannah Fleming, Karlee Schroeder, Emily Brunsing. Abby Beeson reads names of some of the veterans present for the program. Caden Kazena McBride and Brycen Zephier welcome veterans with a thank you sign. Tatum Wren, Jensen Holzbauer, Rachel Dion, and Sadie Eitemiller also greeted veterans who attended the program. Krista Dvorak addresses the crowd in attendance for the annual Veterans Day program at WCS.
