Oral Interp

State Qualifiers:
Kelsey Barnett
Chloe Noteboom

Counterclockwise, from top left: Representing Wagner at regions were Chloe Noteboom, Jordan Drews, Kelsey Barnett, Josi Bouza, Maggie Barnett, Krista Dvorak, and Nathan Kucera. There is always time for fun at oral interp meets as Nathan Kucera is just chillin' with the team. Nathan and Tavia made for some great newscasting. There is never a dull moment in oral interp, especially with Jordan Drews. Wagner had a good time at the Yankton meet (Dylan Esplund, Angel Kindsvogel, Josi Bouza)! Angel Kindsvogel gave an excellent performance with "The Crickets Have Arthritis." Kelsey Barnett shows her passion for Robert Frost. Kelsey Barnett and Chloe Noteboom earned a superior rating at state with their duet "Dibs."

Not Pictured: Tatum Wren and Alexis Dion

Empowerment is an extracurricular group that fosters relationships by teaching acceptance, social interaction, community service, and team building. Empowerment replaced Culture Club this 2015-16 school year. The overall umbrella focus of Empowerment is getting students the much needed community service experiences. Community service not only fosters responsibility in people, it also helps build scholarship applications and resumes. It is important we start at a young age giving back to communities and people in different ways. - Vanessa Iverson
