COOKS AND CUSTODIANS

These are the smiling faces of our cooks. They cook and prepare the noon meal for the 250-260 students who eat there each school day. They are Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Andersh, and Mrs. Obermire.

The students above portray the rush that takes place daily in our lunch room.

Walt Denker and John Slaba perform the many tasks and favors so essential to life at Wagner High. The never-ending patience and friendliness of these two will always be remembered.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Soon the hallowed halls of Wagner High School will hold only the echoes and the memories of the 1966 Senior Class. Before they become a pleasant memory, let us review the history of the senior class.

As freshmen the class quickly adjusted to the hectic school life. Happily, the class survived the horrors of initiation and Kangaroo Court. To become an organized class they elected Kathy McDowell as president; Sherri Abdouch as vice-president; Nobel Troxell as secretary; and Allen Aubert as treasurer. Mike Metteer and Susan Pousek were chosen as Student Council representatives. Patty Cuka and Dennis Stulc were chosen as royalty attendants.

To prove they were dauntless, they returned in 1963 as sophomores. President of the sophomore class was Patty Cuka; vice-president was David Rokusek; secretary was JoAnn Wiechmann, and treasurer was Janelle Brookman. Student Council representatives were Kathy McDowell and Steve Kirkeby. Janice Deurmier and Gaylen Bridge were royalty attendants. The sophomore girls won the honor of being the Intramural Girls' Basketball Champs.

As juniors the class chose Cheryl Crisman as president; Steve Kirkeby as vice-president; Jackie Stedronsky as secretary; and Jim Kasel as treasurer. Jim transferred and David Rokusek was chosen treasurer. Dennis Stulc and Patty Cuka were chosen Student Council representatives. Linda Stogsdill and Jim Kasel were chosen as royal attendants. Representing Wagner at Boys' State were Alan Dobesh and Allen Aubert. Alternates were Dennis Stulc and Charles Mazourek. Girl Staters were Patty Cuka and Kathy McDowell. Cheryl Crisman and Janelle Brookman were alternates. Again the junior girls, with a coup-de-grace, won the Intramural Championship. The biggest event of the junior year was the Junior-Senior Prom. The beautifully depicted theme was "Roman Holiday."

To lead the 1966 Class Alan Dobesh as president; Janice Deurmier as vice-president; David Rokusek as treasurer; and Jeannie Bastermeyer as secretary were elected. Jeannie transferred to Sioux Falls and Janelle Brookman was selected as secretary. Kathy McDowell and Dennis Stulc were chosen as Student Council representatives. Royalty candidates were Patty Cuka, Linda Stogsdill, and Janice Deurmier for queen; Alan Dobesh, Dennis Stulc, and David Rokusek for king. Dennis Stulc and Linda Stogsdill were chosen to reign. To complete the list of laurels won by the seniors we must include the honor students—Dennis Stulc, Steve Kirkeby, Linda Blazek, Patty Cuka, and Kathy McDowell; the DAR representative—Cheryl Crisman; the National Merit Scholarship Finalist—Frances Honke; and the Betty Crocker Award Winner—Joan Kucera.

Class Motto: "We sail on the seas of ambition and land on the shores of success."

ACTIVITIES

Students at W.H.S. participate in a number of activities. Some, like the librarians, perform a service in the school. Others try to broaden the students' outlook through F.H.A. or F.F.A. Debate and Declam programs are offered for those who would improve their speaking. Our cheerleaders and pep squad spur our teams - football, basketball, and wrestling - on to victory. Track, along with the others, trains muscles for action. On the less strenuous side, we also have an active band. The pep band plays during the games; the concert band has several concerts each year. Vocal music is offered and several groups and individuals have won at contests. The Student Council actively supports youth projects throughout the school and community. The Raider Review staff works diligently to make available the news at W.H.S. Last but not least is our industrious annual staff. Their work is in your hands as you read this annual. W.H.S. is the lifeblood of our community, and its activities are the lifeblood of its students.

Kathy McDowell, Suzanne Doyle.

Declam contestants participated in the District 19 contest held in Lake Andes on November 2. Stefanie Ramsdell read poetry, and Suzanne Doyle gave a dramatic reading, Mary Stuart. Kathy McDowell succeeded in winning a superior in the district and the regional at Chamberlain. She went on to win an excellent in the state contest at Pierre, November 19.

The primary purpose of the Future Farmers of America is the development of agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship.

These are accomplished by having various judging contests, judging schools, officers' conventions, and the like. This enables young farm boys to strengthen their confidence in themselves and their work.

ACTION

PERSEVERANCE, STAMINA, AND PHYSICAL ALERTNESS aided these young wrestlers through grueling and exhaustive hours of practice and competition! With the results of the first year, we feel that the sport of wrestling will continue to grow in WHS.

With the introduction of wrestling, Mr. Keonig produced Wagner High's first wrestling team. These wrestlers, on their magic carpet, provided sport fans with a new and exciting interest. They are: BACK ROW: Verlin Winckler, Rich Rezac, Allen Aubert, Dennis Payer, Wayne Verba, Mr. Keonig. MIDDLE ROW: Larry Smejkal, Bruce Ramsdell, Keith Smejkal, Gary Payer, Ron Blaha, Marvin Gullickson, Jim Novak, Dennis Gale. GR EAT

OUR TEAM featured three great senior players: Dennis Stulc, Greg Schneringer, Dave Eitemiller.

THIS YEAR the Raiders were plagued with lack of experience, due to the loss of former senior players. Despite this handicap, their determination, effective press, and general school spirit, made them one of the most talked about squads in District #27! LEFT TO RIGHT: Dan Smith, Bill Frei, Larry Slaba, Greg Hoy, Ken Peterson, David Eitemiller, Dennis Stulc, Jim Bren, Greg Schneringer, Rich Hennies, John Masur, Gaylen Martin. BACK: Coach Wiblemo.

F-F-FIG-G-G-GHT-FIG-GHT!

FIGHT

W.H.S. IS PROUD of their first seven. Each added excitement and thrill to the experience of watching the Raiders at work. Being in basketball requires extra time, but these boys devoted much more. They gave hours of their already overcrowded school day to our team. We thank them.

WILLARD'S WINNERS

Tyrone Peters, Jerry Bastemeyer, and Duane Kolda are truly members of the team. Serving as student managers, they keep all equipment in tiptop shape.

A and B COACHES Wiblemo and Willard, are making some last minute changes in the scheduled plays to produce an advantage over opposing teams!

WHS-CHAMPS!

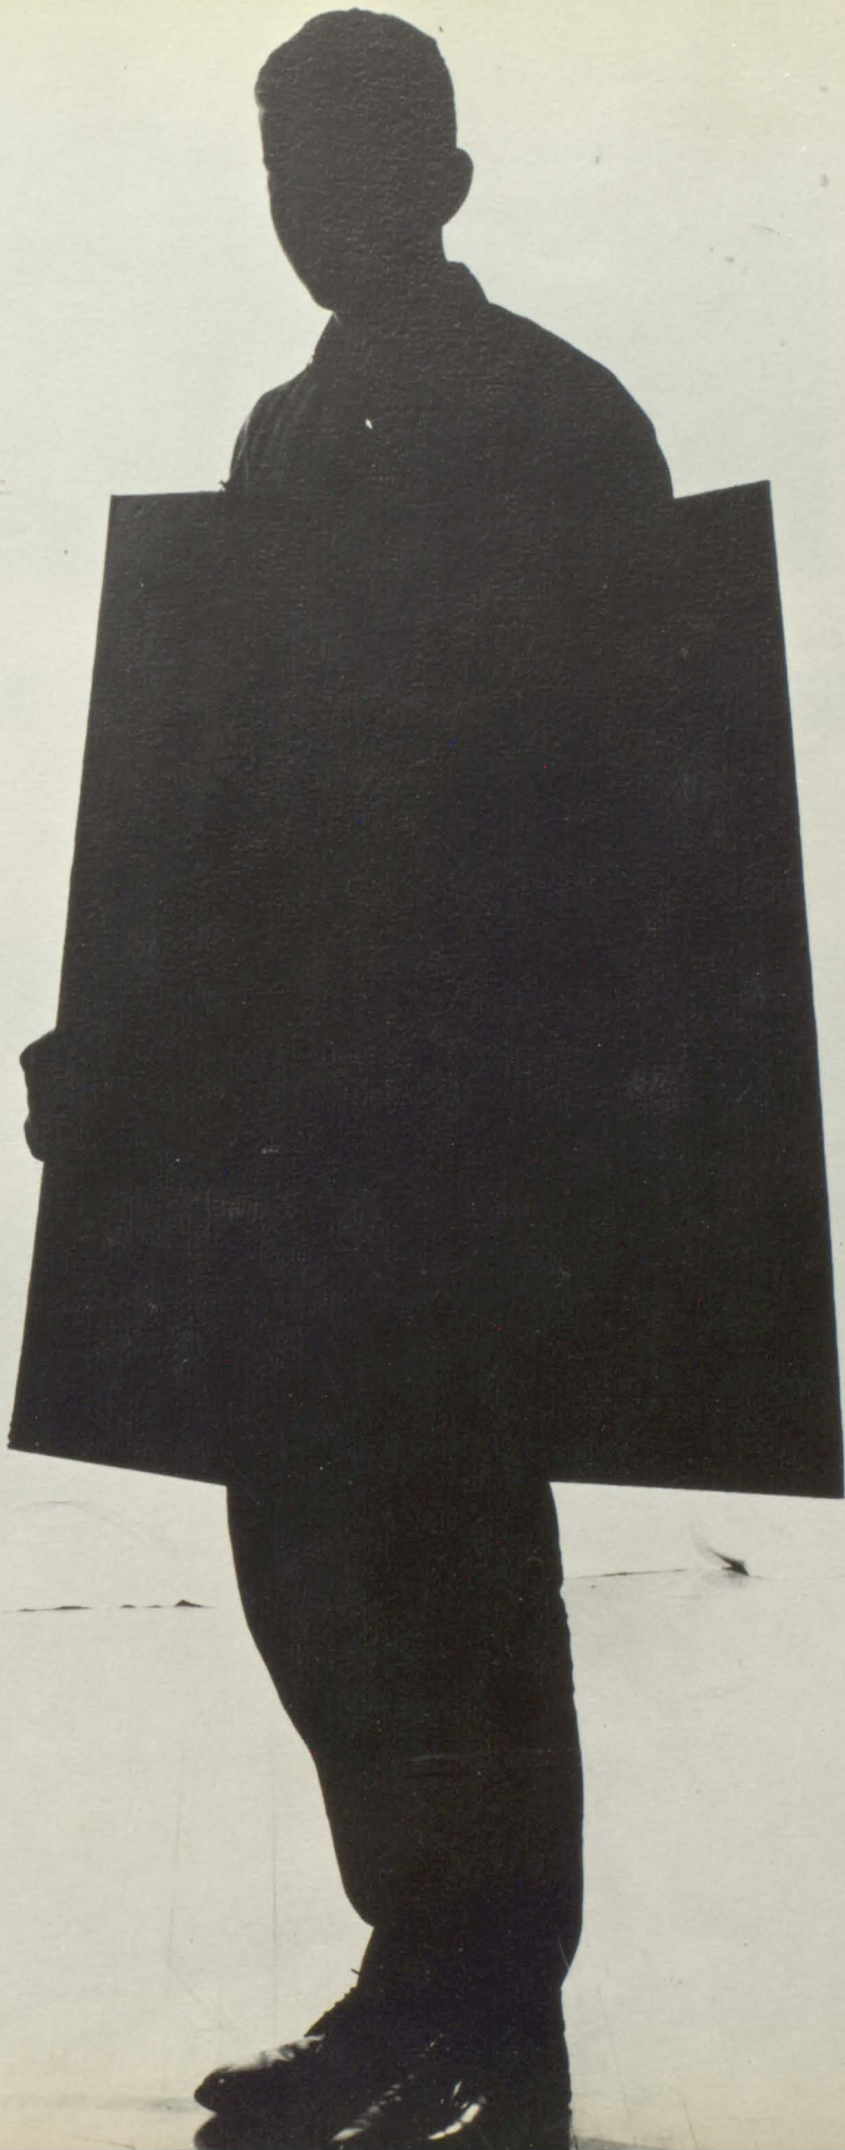

These beaming athletes have a right to be happy! After a week filled with excitement, tension, and suspense, they carried off the District #27 Championship after a sweeping victory over Geddes.

Tension wasn't felt by players alone. The entire student body of WHS was in a turmoil. School spirit spread like an epidemic affecting all sports fans in the Wagner area. Little red derbys, supporting our team, could be seen scattered throughout the crowd.

With this trophy they are now headed for the regionals with confidence and the knowledge that - win or lose - we're behind them all the way!
