We Will
All
Remember

The portals we enter at the start of our day. The classroom, the staircase, the corridors. The athletic field. The voices, the faces, the places, times and events.

Ever changing, never the same and ever new...our scene is exciting and alive.

The building, teachers, students. Friends, loyalties, victories and defeats...things dear to us. They are here now, and a moment later gone. It is our MEMOIRS...and they will live on in our hearts.

Dedication

By your personal example, and in your classes, you have shown us the meaning of patriotism, honesty, and sportsmanship. You have taught us to do our best, and to be proud of our attempts, even though we may not reach perfection. In appreciation for these things, we, the seniors, dedicate the 1966-67 Raider to you, Coach Ronald Wiblemo.

Shown at right are Mr. Charles Carr and Mr. Duane Wipf who are the main bus drivers at WHS. They take the players and students to out of town events and also drive the daily route to pick up students for school. The students appreciate the many hours of driving that these two have done for them.

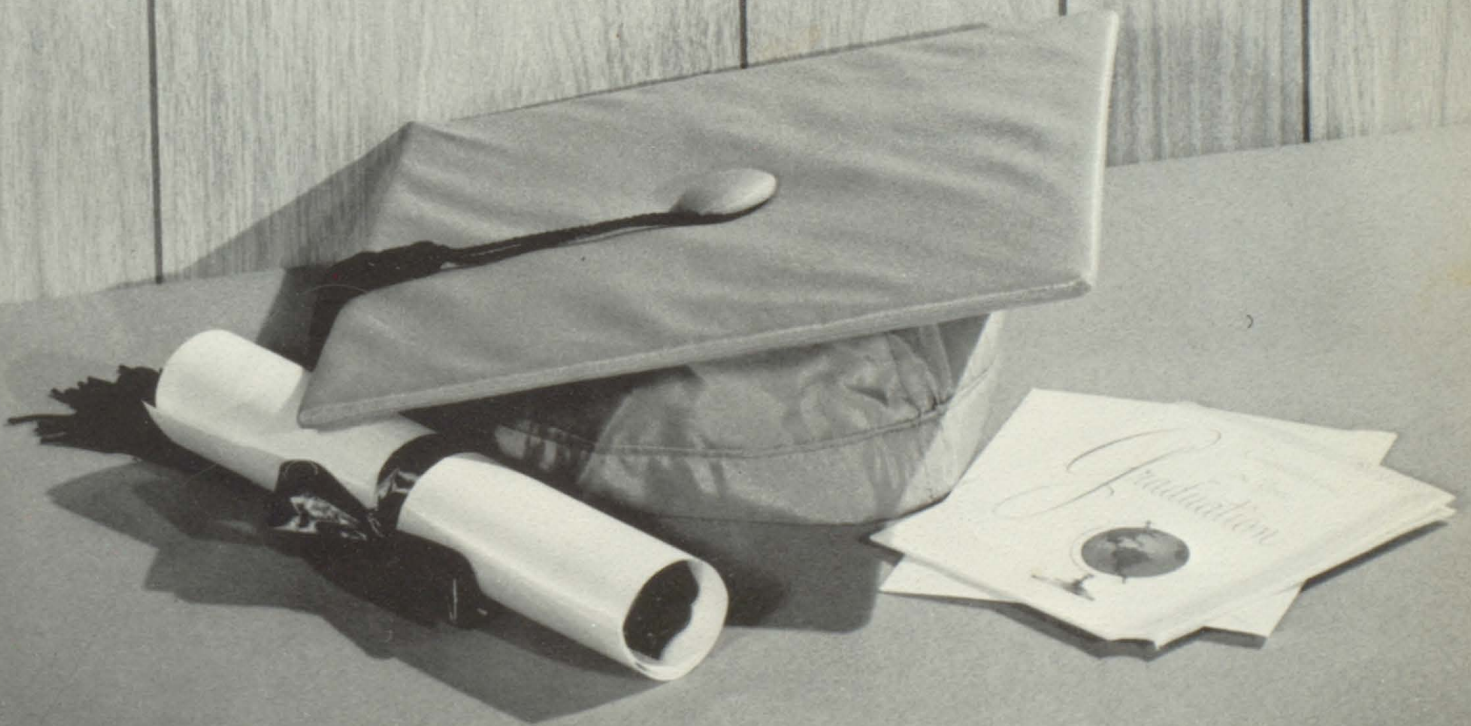

Walt Denker, John Slaba, and Art Boxendorfer are the happy janitors who must clean up after us students. Among their many, handiwork of students off the desks. Their smiling faces and warm personalities are enjoyed by all the students.

Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Obermire, and Mrs. Andersh are responsible for cooking and preparing the noon meal at the hot lunch programs for the students who eat there daily. Many hours of labor are involved in this job and the WHS students appreciate their efforts.

Class of '67 Makes History

Back in 1955, the school bells rang and the doors of Wagner Public School opened to admit the students who were returning for another year of studying. Some came eagerly, others more reluctant; however, in the midst of all those experienced scholars, were the wide-eyed, to whom everything seemed strange and who could only look to others for help. It is these little ones we are going to follow, for today they are in the graduating class of Wagner High.

On that eventful first day of school these small, innocent children looked forward with avid expectancy that somehow offset the fear of the unknown. They grew accustomed to the ways of the school and went forward eagerly full of hope. As it is with every group of people, some of our little pioneers dropped out along the way. Balancing out this loss was the entrance of new students and friends.

Twelve years later we still have ten of our original class: Kevin Alton, Karen Brookman, Diane Frager, Richard Hennies, Pattie Nohr, Dan Pesicka, Mary Lynn Schuurmans, Mary Jo Stedronsky, Margaret Wagner, and Marjorie Wagner. (These students have attended Wagner Public School for twelve consecutive years.)

In our freshman year, thirty new classmates joined us from the country, making up a whole of sixty freshmen.

During the next three years we found ourselves coping with more books, less time, and stricter teachers. Our junior year found us in the midst of confusion, working hard to raise enough money for our Junior-Senior Prom. Despite previous doubts and anxieties, our efforts paid off in a delightful ‘Arabian Night.’

All the knowledge we have gained since then, all the lasting friendships we have developed, and all the humorous, sad, and exciting memories we have stored in our hearts and minds cannot be measured by time.

Now, a year later, fifty-one full-fledged seniors will bid their friends farewell and go out into the world armed with the knowledge they have gleaned from twelve years of hard work and play.

Annual Staff Meets Deadline!

(Would you believe, Almost?)

CUTTING, PASTING, WRITING, AND PLANNING are just a few of the ingredients involved in making a satisfactory yearbook. Cooperation, organization, and lots of thinking are essential! This year the annual staff, composed of thirty students, spent much time and energy in recording the events of WHS as they happened.

BUSY AT WORK: Pat Schroeder, Pat Nohr, Joyce Link, and Margaret Wagner.

INSTRUCTION AND ADVICE are always appreciated when it comes to planning the school annual. Here, Mr. Behrend is pointing out a unique layout plan to the editor and co-editor.

WHS welcomed Mr. Mark Meyers, a graduate of USD, as their band director for 1966-67. Mr. Meyers spent this year of teaching, guiding us through the fundamentals of music.

THE PEP OF THE PEP MEETING would not be possible if it were not for the pep band. Cheerleaders, student body, and a pep band, all make up the important part of a pep meeting. High school spirit and the will to yell and cheer for the team is prevalent in any school, but the best way of helping these qualities remain constant is to provide good peppy music--which is what we have done!

THE MEMBERSHIP OF NURSES' CLUB is made up of young girls who are considering the medical field of nursing as a future profession. This year the girls were active in volunteer hospital work, touring various nursing schools, and sponsoring benefit drives.

Nurses' Club

NURSES' CLUB OFFICERS: Sherry Johnson, Mary Lynn Schuurmans, Kathy Zolnowsky, Kathy Rezac.

MUCH CREDIT is due these officers who spent much time organizing Nurses' Club during a busy year filled with many activities.

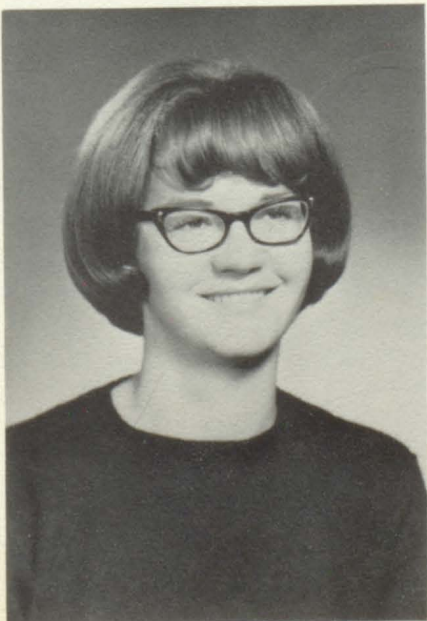

Advisors

Mrs. Brookman, Mrs. Hennies, Mrs. Twitero

This year the Future Nurses' Club did volunteer work at the Wagner Community Hospital after school. This work consisted of carrying supper trays, washing patients, making beds, and doing any job assigned to them. The purpose of working at the hospital is to help the girls decide about a career in nursing.

Some of their main activities were: touring the Methodist School of Nursing in Mitchell, attending College Day at Mount Marty College in Yankton, helping with the drive for the mentally retarded, taking a collection from the student body for the crippled children's fund, and attending the state convention.

Local Student Becomes State Officer

Sandy Nash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Nash, was chosen as the State Secretary-Treasurer at the State Convention in 1966.

"In the Misty Moonlight"

Dancers enjoy romantic atmosphere provided by the "misty moonlight," dreamy music, and fountain spray.

The Royal Blues Orchestra

This year the juniors honored the seniors with a truly romantic and delightful prom entitled "In the Misty Moonlight." The Royal Blues Orchestra furnished music to dance and dream by.

The most outstanding feature of the prom, however, was the ingenious and authentic-looking fountain in the center of the floor. With a delicate blue spray shimmering in the dark, the dancers enjoyed themselves.

S P O N S O R S

Mr. & Mrs. Twitero

The junior class owes much of their success for this year's prom to the efforts of Mr. Twitero, Mr. Marshalek, and Mrs. Williamson. After much planning, organizing, and many headaches, the result, "In the Misty Moonlight," turned out to be one of the most beautiful proms in WHS.

WHS IS PROUD to present the SESD Wrestling Champs of 1966-67. Under the excellent supervision of Coach Koenig, these hardy wrestlers came through the season with one loss out of the twelve matches! Besides bringing pride and fame to WHS, the grapplers stimulated school spirit to an all time high! The strict self-discipline and long grueling hours of practice paid off when these athletes became the proud recipients of the Wagner and Tyndall invitational trophies and the title of SESD WRESTLING CHAMPS!!

After a successful season filled with hard work and challenging matches, these five senior matmen leave behind them a record of high achievement and exciting memories!

COMBINING SPEED ALERTNESS, AND TEAM PLAY, the Red Raiders fought diligently through a rough season. Despite tough competition, the Raiders, boosted by school spirit and participation, strove doggedly to bring victory to WHS! Left: Jim Bren, Le Wipf, Gerry Morgan, Bill Frei, Dan Smith, Gaylen Martin, John Masur, Rich Hennes, Greg Hoy, Larry Slaba, Ron Hollmann, Coach Wibleno.

The combined efforts of the 'A' and 'B' teams shown above brought the season to a rewarding close. With the tiresome routine practices and self-sacrifice, the team earned no less than a triumphant season.

SENIOR PLAYERS. These four rugged seniors provided a strong nucleus for a team composed mainly of underclassmen.

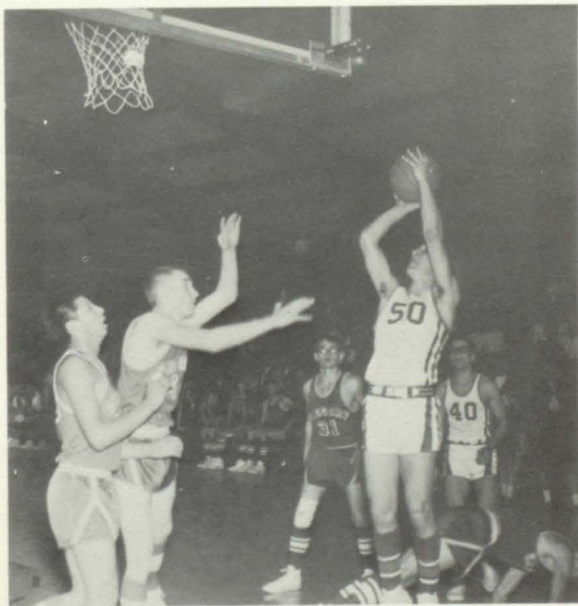

After serving WHS through high school, Rich Hennies, Ron Hollmann, Le Grant Wipf and Gaylen Martin have been well rewarded for their efforts. Their outstanding leadership will be missed at Wagner High.
