Heading for the Future

but

Remembering of the Past

Walking the halls of Wagner High for the last time as a student, a person, swells with pride and, yet, bows with humility. Pride comes because of what has been done and learned, and the humility comes of a realization of yet what must be learned.

Through the joy of graduation night, memories carry secrets known only to themselves. There are sad memories of things that can never be done again and of youth which will never return. However, not all is lost. The things we want most to remember--the first date, the prom, the people--we will remember.

The only things a graduate of Wagner High has going for him are friends, education, and hope. But what more might he need?

Dedication

The Senior Class of 1968 is honored to dedicate the Raider yearbook to Mr. Victor Koenig. Over the years Mr. Koenig has gained the full admiration and respect of his students. Through this man we have all gained a lesson in personal integrity. As a teacher and coach, he has guided us to a future of great portent.

In heartfelt appreciation we would like to say: "Thank you, Mr. Koenig."

These two cheerful men are our custodians, Walt Denker and John Slaba. We would like to take this opportunity to thank them for their helpfulness and unending patience over the past years.

Providing us with a hot noon meal every day are our cooks: Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Soukup, Mrs. Andersh, Mrs. Peterson, and Mrs. Barkley.

Senior Class History

Entering the halls of Wagner High, we came as shaky, green freshmen, but we came with a high potential which has been developed over these past four years by the various teachers, subjects, and activities, with which we, the Seniors of 1968, have come in contact.

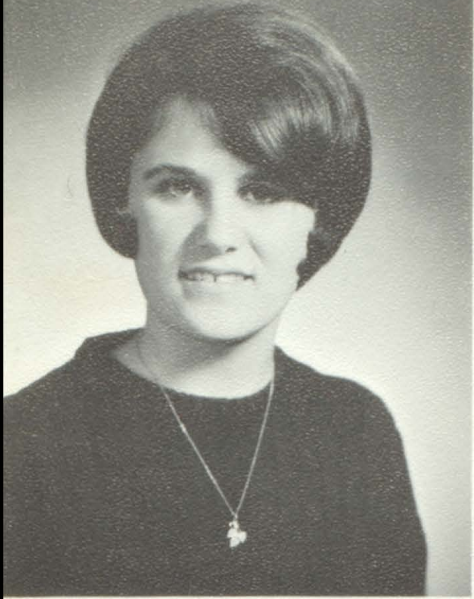

Fifty-six of us arrived in 1964. Initiation and kangaroo court gave all of us a chance to really get acquainted with the seniors, and how! Jenise J., now transferred, was elected president of our class with Bill F. as vice-president, Dan S. as secretary, and Wanda M. as treasurer. Chosen as Student Council representatives were Kay B. and Dave O. Homecoming attendants were Jenise J. and Jim B. The class advisors were Mr. Koenig and Mrs. Schilling.

As sophomores we came back with an enrollment of fifty-three. That year Kay B. led our class with Jim B. as vice-president, Pat S. as secretary, and Dan S. as treasurer. While sophomores, we were represented in the Student Council by Althea W. and John M. Mrs. Twitero (Miss Stillman) and Mr. Heydon were our class advisors. Homecoming attendants were Kathy R. and John M.

Our junior year started with fifty-seven hard working and ambitious students. The president of the class was Dan S. Althea W. as vice-president, Diane C. as secretary, and Julie H. as treasurer also helped to lead our class. Mr. Twitero, Mr. Marshalek, and Mrs. Williamson were our class sponsors. We were represented in the Student Council by Kay B. and Larry P. Selected as Homecoming attendants were Pat S. and Larry P. Selected as Girl and Boy Staters were Phil B., Larry P., Judy W., and Wanda M. The alternates were Rich H., Jim B., and Kay B., and Lynn G. Our prom, "In the Misty Moonlight," with its beautiful and romantic atmosphere really showed what our class could do. Dave O. and Phoebe P. were chosen as Prom Prince and Princess.

In this, our senior year, we have fifty-four members. The high position of president is filled by Larry P. Other offices are filled by Phil B., vice-president; Rick T., secretary; and Rich H., treasurer. The Student Council representatives are Diane C. and Lon L. Phil B., Jim B., and Kay B. all seniors, are heading the Student Council. Our Homecoming King and Queen are Larry P. and Diane C. Other candidates for this honor were Phil B., Jim B., and Kathy R. During this year other outstanding seniors are: Kay B., DAR candidate; Eileen W., Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow; Larry P., All-State Football player; and Doug B., Rich H., Dave O., Lynn G. and Ann K., Honor Students of our graduating class. Senior class advisors are Mr. Koenig and Mr. McFarland.

Now, looking back over these past four years and remembering all that has occurred, we have mixed emotions. Our gay and carefree dispositions are somewhat dampened as we bid the halls of Wagner High our fourth and final farewell.

EILEEN R. WIECHMANN
"Dover"

"All great women are dying, I don't feel so great myself."

Girls' Glee 9,10,11,12; Annual Staff 9,10,11,12; Pep Club 10,11,12; Librarian 10,11; Band 10,11,12; Band Council 10,11,12; FHA 11,12; Mixed Chorus 12; Betty Crocker Homemaker 12.

Masculinity dominates the senior class: Advisors, Mr. Koenig and Mr. McFarland; Rich Honke, treasurer; Larry Peters, president; Phil Brookman, vice-president; Rick Thaler, secretary.

Class Motto: "To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield."

Class Color: Blue and Silver

Class Flower: White Rose
