Administration

This year the administration staff has consisted of Mr. Goter, Mrs. DuFrain, Mr. Petry, and Mrs. Smit. Mr. Goter shared some of his duties with Mr. Petry to keep the school running smoothly. Mr. Petry was also the athletic director this year. Mrs. DuFrain took care of the financial department. Mrs. Smit took the responsibility of supervising and administering the school.

Support Staff

Sorry, but the janitors were unable to make it for the picture in time to put in the annual.

Following are the Janitors at Wagner Community School:

- Dale Carda
- Bonnie Carda
- Dale Drews
- Rich Slaba
- Bonnie Soukup
- Stan Swatek
- Carol Tolliver
- Rich Leibhan

The bus drivers, janitors, cooks, and secretaries did a wonderful job this year. The bus drivers did a great job making sure that the kids got to and from school safely. The janitors did an excellent job of keeping our school clean. The cooks also were great by serving us breakfast and lunches. The secretaries also did a wonderful job. The Support Staff is greatly appreciated.

Members of the planning committee are: Ashton Blaha, Crystal Dvoracek, Cassandra Krcil, Stephanie Carda, Vicky Cuka and Mateya Kuhlman.

Staff members, under the supervision of Ms. Holzbauer, have been busy preparing the 2004-2005 annual for publication. Taking pictures, constructing pages and selling annuals are a few of the tasks that the staff members were asked to perform. The planning committee also picked a cover design and decided what would go on each page. Overall, it has been a busy and successful year for the annual staff.

The "Raider Report"

Co-Editors include: Danyel Alderink and Cody Juffer.

Junior Editors
include: Nakita
Podhradsky and Anna
Ishmael.

Throughout the year
the members of the
"Raider Report" compile
a newspaper that usually consists of anywhere between twenty-four to thirty- four pages.

The pages consist of miscellaneous pages
such as senior spotlights,
classroom highlights,
sport stories, birthday
calendars, pictures of students in school, art
pages, club news, expressions, music notes,
college advice, on this day in history, and pages put in by staff
members.

From all the hard work the newspaper
staff puts into each page,
they make each page
enjoyable to read.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Leading academically, civilly and compassionately, the National Honor Society spent an incredible year dedicating their time to bettering their school, community, state, and even the nation.

The Wagner National Honor Society for the 2004-2005 school year consisted of six seniors: Matthew Hill, Kristi Donelan, Matt Ishmael, Derek Koupal, Carmen Soulek, Jill Krcil and Mateya Kuhlman.

Six juniors were also inducted into the National Honor Society this year. These juniors include Vicky Cuka, Amanda Horner, Cody Juffer, Cassandra Krcil, Andrew Bubak and Crystal Dvoracek.

The members endured several fun tasks such as putting up birthday boards every month, visiting the nursing home for their monthly bingo sessions, making Easter baskets, giving root beer floats to the honor roll students, helping within their community for their service projects, creating messages along the fence with cups, selling candles, collecting jean money and assisting with several programs held within the school, are just a few of the many outstanding tasks that the National Honor Society has performed within the 2004-2005 school year.

Mentoring

Mentors spend time each week with elementary students to help them develop into confident people who make wise decisions. Mentors usually spend approximately two hours per week meeting with their mentor children. This organization has been growing rapidly in the past few years. The Wagner School is proud of the spirit and motivation of its fine students who volunteer to promote this cause.

BASKETBALL

The Wagner Red Raiders Boys Basketball team had an outstanding season with a record of 14-8. Wagner hosted the first round of districts playing Bon Homme. After winning an exciting game we moved on to play Marty hosted in Parkston. This was the first District Title the Wagner Boys have brought home in seventeen years.

The boys then went on to Winner to take on the Platte Panthers for the Region Title. After a long, hard battle the boys came up short in the end. They had an terrific season and we cannot wait until next year for another fun filled year!

School Play

The Envelope Please

Howard Hunk is a star of stars and a chance to star with him in his upcoming film is the first prize at the TWITS (The Winterville International Talent Search) Competition on the hit series, Tonight's Entertainment. The host of the show is Lance Luster (Brien Roberts) with special news reporter Savanah Sultry (Jillian Krcil). Wendy White (Robin Kisely) ends up winning the competition with her violin talents, which upsets Snow Storm (Tiffany Hrdlicka) greatly. Snow Storm hires Angelo Bamboozle (Andrew Bubak) to "do away with" her stepmother, Wendy White, but fails and both of them end up getting caught and put into jail.
